

Soviet To Continue Protests Against War

Delayed Ballots Halt Victoria Strikers' Vote

Two hundred and forty Victoria transportation workers of the B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd., members of the Street Railwaymen's Union (A.F.L.), will vote Saturday on whether or not to return to their streets and buses under a settlement program worked out in Vancouver earlier this week.

Delay of the arrival of ballots for the vote was blamed today by union members for the postponement of the vote.

Result of the vote here, along with that of Vancouver and New Westminster urban transit workers, is expected to be announced late Saturday. The ballots cast in Victoria will be flown to Vancouver to be counted there along with those cast in the mainland cities.

If the men vote to return to work, it is thought streetcars and buses in the three cities may be running Sunday or Monday, ending the strike which has been in effect since Oct. 20—the second longest in the history of the company's transit workers.

Voting will be held from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Membership meetings of the Victoria union division were held here Thursday at which the settlement proposals were discussed with members of the union advisory board. The proposal calls for a 10-cent per hour across the board wage boost and a reduction of working hours for the employees by Sept. 16, 1948, from the present 46 per week to 40.

It is reliably reported that the increase provided by the settlement proposal will require an increase in the fares charged if the company is to maintain its present financial structure.

The present settlement proposal, worked out by mayors and reeves of the municipalities involved and officials of the company and the union, is very similar to that rejected by the union membership before the strike was called. Provision in the latest proposal, however, is made for a speedier reduction of working hours.

NOT OPTIMISTIC

In Vancouver today it was said hopes of ending British Columbia's 19-day-old transit workers strike darkened with reports that the 2,800 striking members of the Street Railwaymen's Union (A.F.L.) might vote down the latest pay-boost offer.

It was learned considerable opposition to the new offer of a 10-cent-an-hour wage increase was voiced at meetings of the men Thursday when the proposal was outlined to union members.

"I wouldn't be surprised," said a union official today, when told of unofficial reports indicating the strikers will reject the offer.

New Homes Fail To Equal City Influx

The dream of a "home of one's own" is coming true for 359 families of Greater Victoria as an analysis of building figures in the area shows that this many houses have been started this year.

Even so, the number of new homes going up is not keeping pace with the number of new families coming to Victoria, estimated to be as high as 300 a month. This is in addition to new family units as a result of marriage. To the end of September there were 894 couples married.

Saanich home-builders led the list, with 468 new houses being started in that municipality during the 10-month period. In the city 322 new homes were started in 1947; in Esquimalt, 80, and in Oak Bay, 69.

Testifies In Hughes Inquiry

At a session of the Senate War Investigating subcommittee's inquiry into Howard Hughes' $40,000,000 worth of war contracts, Charles E. ### Roosevelt Interested In Hughes Contract, Probe Told WASHINGTON (AP) — A former air force general testified today that the late President Roosevelt, Jesse Jones and other "powerful friends" of Howard Hughes were interested in a wartime contract for Hughes in 1943.

Bennett E. Meyers, retired major-general, gave this testimony before a senate war investigating subcommittee as he identified a recorded telephone conversation of Oct. 21, 1943, with Robert Lovett.

Lovett then was an Assistant Secretary of War and now is Under-Secretary of State. Hughes at the time held a contract to build a huge flying boat and was attempting to get a contract to build 100 reconnaissance planes.

Meyers, then a deputy chief of aircraft procurement, read this telephone conversation into the committee record:

"Lovett: Because this is one of those borderline cases that can be embarrassing if we get into... for example he has got very powerful friends here in Washington."

"Meyers: Yes, sir, Jesse Jones and the President and everyone else seems to be in it."

Jesse Jones was chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and has figured in previous testimony in connection with the Hughes contracts.

Meyers testified that on Oct. 9, 1943, he told Gen. H. H. Arnold, then head of the U.S. Army Air Forces, that:

(1) The Hughes Aircraft Company was not qualified to build photo reconnaissance planes;

(2) The contract for 100 of these planes "might at a later date draw congressional criticism."

"You were quite sure the contract had an odor?" asked Senator Ferguson (Rep.-Mich.), chairman of the war investigating subcommittee, conducting the inquiry.

Meyers replied: "I was quite sure it had an odor."

Albert J. Browning, a former wartime procurement officer, previously had said that top level officials directed him to sign a $70,274,666 contract with Hughes for the F-11s.

It was said Hughes, millionaire plane builder, might take the stand later in the day.

Prime Minister Lands In Britain, Says Conditions In Canada Good

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng. (CP) — Prime Minister King arrived from Canada today aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth for a three-week visit to Britain and north-west Europe during which he will attend the Nov. 20 wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Lieut. Philip Mountbatten.

The Prime Minister will leave tomorrow for Paris and go Monday to Brussels, where he will receive an honorary degree from Brussels University. Wednesday he will drive to The Hague, where he is scheduled to address The Netherlands parliament. He expects to return to London Saturday.

He wished to express "very strongly" the hope that Princess Elizabeth and Lieut. Mountbatten would find it possible to visit Canada.

Canada would give them a great welcome, he said. The mink coat which the Canadian government is giving Princess Elizabeth as a wedding present would be flown from Canada in time for the wedding. The further gift of antique silver would be chosen in London by the Princess herself.

Reporters clustered around the liner Nieuw Amsterdam Nov. 26

Britain, U.S. Plan Provisional German Assembly

LONDON (AP) — Authoritative Whitehall sources said today Britain and the United States have tentatively agreed on creation of a "provisional parliament" for western Germany if the Big Four fails to agree on a German peace treaty.

Their report came soon after a Foreign Office spokesman had denied that Britain had made any arrangements either for establishing a west German state or for devising any final policy which would be followed in the event of a Big Four treaty deadlock.

TO MEET NOV. 25
The Council of Foreign Ministers is to meet in London Nov. 25.

The informants reported the Anglo-American discussions have taken place at "a high political level."

They mentioned, in this connection, the names of Baron Inverchapel, British ambassador to the United States, and Sir William Strang, political adviser to Lt. Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, the zonal commander in Germany. Strang is now in Washington for talks on revising the Anglo-American zonal fusion agreement.

TO LIMIT FUNCTIONS

The authoritative informants said present intentions were to appoint representatives from the laender (states) of the merged Anglo-American zone to what would become a "provisional parliament" early in 1948.

The "parliament" would have limited legislative functions and would be "provisional" in the sense that it would function only until a representative body could be elected.

France's foreign minister, Georges Bidault, they said, already has assured this country and the United States "unofficially" he would join the zonal merger.

They said the three western powers would work out a new currency plan for western Germany as one of their first undertakings.

U.N. Assembly Faces Boycott Pressure From Russians

By ROSS MUNRO
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LAKE SUCCESS (CP) — The United Nations today was confronted with the strange, new "boycott pressure," introduced by the Russian bloc into General Assembly affairs to oppose majority decisions in lieu of a veto, confined to the Security Council, where the Soviet Union has invoked it 22 times.

In the last two days, the six-state Soviet group has vigorously declared its boycott of the "Little Assembly" — after it was approved Thursday by an overwhelming majority — and also the U.N. commission to facilitate Korean independence.

Earlier the bloc had boycotted the Balkan "border-watch" commission and the subcommittee which drafted the "Little Assembly" proposal.

DELEGATES PUZZLED

These boycott tactics have the delegates here puzzled. They watch the Russian bloc going to these radical lengths to declare its opposition to majority decisions of Assembly committees, yet there isn't the slightest indication that the Soviet Union and its supporters have any intention of walking out of U.N.

In fact, Russia's Andrei Vishinsky said in effect Thursday Russia would resist any attempts to push her out.

One leading delegate, who requested not to be identified, termed the boycott measures the "veto of the mechanical six."

He said he felt it was an attempt to introduce the veto, or at least "veto pressure," into the work of the General Assembly, where no veto has ever been applicable.

"The Russians are trying to establish the principle that they can veto anything they disagree with by classing it a violation of the U.N. charter," he said.

2 Planes Seized By U.S. To Stop Use In Revolution

PONCA CITY, Okla. (AP) — The United States has seized two privately-owned heavy bombers on Oklahoma airfields to stop their use in a revolution believed pending in South America, a government official announced here today.

Customs Inspector O. C. Millican of Kansas City made the statement after impounding both planes under a wartime law governing arms exports.

"We have been working on this thing for months," he said. "It involves a lot more than just two bombers."

Millican said both planes were destined for the abortive expedition against the Dominican Republic organized earlier this fall in Cuba.

"When that revolution blew up, the planes were immobilized in the United States," Millican said. "Then we got word they might be used in another revolution brewing in South America, and we decided to seize them."

The customs official said he could not name the country that may be facing a revolt.

Shelton named as legal owner of the planes Luis Borda, alias Joe Diaz.

He said Borda was born in the Dominican Republic, became a naturalized U.S. citizen, served as a major during the war, and is now in Puerto Rico. He will be questioned in the case.

2 U.S. Planes Turn Back Over Pacific; Gasoline Mistake

HONOLULU (AP) — Nine mighty planes and 100 chagrined crew members are returning today to Fort Worth, Texas, unable to reach their Tokyo goal because U.S. army aircraft are not equipped for the type of gasoline available in forward areas.

Who committed the error which cost roughly 100,000 gallons of gasoline—the old kind—in the frustrated flight, is hard to pinpoint.

Lt. Col. William S. Savoie, who commanded the flight, insisted the 8th Air Force planning officers at Fort Worth knew aromatic fuel was critically short here several weeks ago, but had information that gasoline was available this week for the flight.

Savoie explained why his eight B-29s and lone C-54 supply plane couldn't continue on to Tokyo on 145-octane gasoline:

Wartime gasoline caused rubber and plastic connections on the B-29 fuel system to expand, while the new-type gasoline caused contraction. This difference possibly would cause leaks leading to fuel exhaustion or fire.

Vishinsky Tells U.S. By Radio Of Russian Efforts

LAKE SUCCESS (AP) — Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet deputy foreign minister, said today in a Russian-language broadcast over United Nations facilities that "the Soviet Union will continue in the future its struggle against any war propaganda and any instigators of a new war."

"The Soviet Union," Vishinsky said, "is a faithful and consistent champion of peace and security for the peoples of the world, a champion of international co-operation."

He said: "I am taking advantage of the kind invitation extended to me to say over the radio a few words of my own choice about the current session of the United Nations' General Assembly."

"I shall speak about the resolution directed against war propaganda and against instigators of a new war. The resolution was accepted unanimously. This was a surprise to some, for in this resolution the instigators of a new war were not named directly, as was done in the Soviet draft resolution. There is no doubt that the resolution represents a halfway measure. Not all the 'Ts' in it have been dotted."

"However, its first clause reflects the main idea of the Soviet draft — the condemnation of propaganda for a new war."

"This condemnation answers the hopes of working people of the world and expresses the vital interests of all freedom-loving peoples. This idea, this principle, is precious to the Soviet delegation, for the Soviet delegation has been and is fighting for them at present. This principle is recognized and expressed in the General Assembly resolution for which the Soviet delegation has voted."

"The Soviet Union will continue in the future its struggle against any war propaganda and any instigators of a new war."

Probe Says Skipper Contributed Largely To River Collision

TORONTO (CP) — Capt. Charles Willard of Montreal "contributed largely" to the collision early last Sept. 24 of the coal-carrier Milverton and the oil tanker Translake and to the resulting explosion and loss of 12 lives, a four-man investigating commission said today.

Mr. Justice F. H. Barlow of the Ontario Supreme Court said in a judgement read at Osgoode Hall that he and three federal transport department assessors also found Capt. Charles A. Mahoney of Kingston, Ont., "may have contributed to the collision."

Capt. Willard was pilot on the Translake when she was in collision with the Milverton in the St. Lawrence River near Iroquois, Ont. Capt. Mahoney was the Milverton's pilot.

The investigators suspended Capt. Willard's pilot's license for one year, Capt. Mahoney's for six months.

Clare Van Allen, young Iroquois district farmer, was commended for his "outstanding bravery" in rescuing some of the Milverton's crew from the fire-swept ship after the explosion.

Show Of Armed Might Marks 30th Anniversary Of Soviet

MOSCOW (CP) — The diplomatic corps and foreign delegations in the Soviet capital took off their hats in salute to each division of the greatest military parade of the Red Army yet seen in Moscow's Red Square, as armored might roared past Soviet leaders assembled on Lenin's Tomb to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution.

For the third year in succession, Marshal Stalin was not present at the parade. He was believed on a holiday at a Black Sea port.

The cruiser Aurora was stationed near the Lieutenant Schmidt Bridge, at the spot where it fired 30 years ago on the Czar's Winter Palace.

The anniversary is Russia's most sacred holiday. By reckoning of the new-style calendar the date is Nov. 7, but under the old calendar in Russia the revolution occurred in October and orators still refer to it as the October Revolution.

Messages of congratulation were reported pouring into Moscow from both western and eastern powers.

Prime Minister Attlee of Britain sent his "good wishes and congratulations" to Stalin.

From the eastern countries, many of which have Communist-dominated governments, the messages were more enthusiastic, and leaders linked the future of their own nations with that of Russia.

MESSAGE FROM TRUMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman sent "sincere greetings" to the Russian people on the occasion of their national holiday today.

His formal message, addressed to Nikolai Mikhailovich Shvernik, President of the Presidium, made no reference to Soviet government officials. It said:

"On this national anniversary of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, please convey to the people of the Soviet Union the sincere greetings of the people of the United States."

The State Department published Mr. Truman's brief message without comment.

Pilot, Co-Pilot Ride Superfortress Down In Crash Landing

Curious spectators inspect damage of a B-29 which crash-landed in a wheat stubble field near Wilbur, Wash. Pilot Maj. E. F. Arnold and Co-Pilot D. F. Keller, both of Spokane, guided the crippled ship to the landing after ordering five other crew members to parachute to safety. The big bomber was en route to Spokane from Fort Worth, Texas.

Capitalist Forces Planning New War, Soviet Marshal Tells Crowd

LONDON (AP)—Voicing the highest praise for "the glorious armed forces of the U.S.S.R.," Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, Soviet Minister of the Armed Forces, opened a military parade marking the 30th anniversary of the Russian Revolution in Moscow today with the accusation that

"the forces of capitalism are making plans for a new imperialist war."

"The Soviet Union, as hitherto, is conducting a struggle for peace and security," he declared, just before massed units of Russian troops began parading through Red Square to the martial music of massed bands. The Moscow radio broadcast his address.

"Workers and peasants of our country, led by a party of Bolsheviks, overthrew the power of the landlords," he said. "There appeared the first workers' state in the world."

"Imperialists met the advent of our new state with hatred, forecasting its early downfall. The Soviet people restored a ruined economy and began socialist construction."

A Socialist society has been built in our country with no exploitation of man by man, with crisis or unemployment.

"The perfidious attack of Hitler Germany on our country in 1941 interrupted the peaceful labor of the Soviet people. We had to take up arms to defend the freedom and independence of our country. The Soviet people, with armed forces under the leadership of Stalin, routed Hitlerite Germany and Imperialist Japan."

"This victory showed that the Soviet army, armed with the most advanced Stalinist science and with the latest military technique, is the first-class army of our day," Bulganin continued, the broadcast said.

"Thus was shown that the Soviet system born in the October Revolution gave our people a mighty power and that Soviet power is the most stable power and has the greatest prestige in the world. Having routed the aggressors, the Soviet people restored and further developed their national economy."

"After the Second World War, great changes took place in the international system. The forces of capitalism have declined, the forces of democracy increased."

"The forces of capitalism are making plans for a new imperialist war. The Soviet Union, as hitherto, is conducting a struggle for peace and security. The policy of the Soviet Union has the support of progressive mankind, which does not want war, but lasting peace."

Snohomish Nears Panama With Tow

Now past Acapulco on the Mexican coast, the Snohomish, shown here as she tows the Island Yarder carrying six, 70-foot tugs en route to Buenos Aires, Argentina, is expected to reach the Panama Canal in about a week.

Nothing Father Neptune can develop in the way of a sea storm can halt the tug Snohomish and her tow of the barge Island Yarder with six former U.S. army tugs, according to Norman Turner, Island Tug and Barge Ltd. superintendent, who has just returned from Long Beach, Calif., where he left the tug after she had passed through heavy gales which raged over the west coast recently.

According to Mr. Turner, the Snohomish and her Victoria crew went through a hectic few days while 60 and 70 mile-an-hour gales raged over the tug and her tow for four days. The way they came through that storm has made Mr. Turner confident that nothing will stop the Snohomish now from completing her 10,000-mile voyage to Buenos Aires, Argentina, with one of the most unusual tows ever to leave the Pacific northwest.

The weather was good when they left Seattle Oct. 15, Mr. Turner said in recounting his portion of the trip. But on Oct. 17, the barometer fell rapidly. Soon gales were tearing at the Victoria craft and a smoking gate hid the Island Yarder and her cargo 1,500 feet astern.

CRANKY TOWLINE
One of the major concerns was the behavior of the towline. At times the Snohomish lifted so much in the nose as she met the huge waves that the towline astern was as much as five feet clear of the roller. Then as she topped the crest, her stern would soar up into the air bringing the towline smacking down on the stern.

At one time it was suggested that some form of buffer be put aft to prevent the crashing line from damaging the Snohomish's stern, but swirling seas which smothered the afterdeck prevented this attempt, Mr. Turner said. As it was, they came through safely but the line damaged the metal work astern.

Everybody stayed inboard during the storm as it was practically impossible to make the deck in the gale, Mr. Turner said. The radio operator was isolated a good deal of the time in his shack on the upper deck.

For two days during the storm, the Snohomish made no headway at all, although her engines were going full speed.

On Oct. 21, the gale started to moderate and by the following day the weather was fair. It wasn't long before the crew members were peeling off their shirts to get a tan.

EXTRA FUEL OIL
At San Pedro, where they took on extra fuel in additional tanks aboard the barge because of the fuel oil shortage. Interested crowds went to see the Victoria craft. One shipping man who had been in the game 20 years said he had never seen anything like the Island Yarder and her cargo before. "I've seen everything now," he said.

There was only one other incident, Mr. Turner recalled, that was out of the usual and that occurred at the beginning of the voyage. While the tug and her tow were maneuvering in the straits, Peter Blake, a crew member, and non-swimmer, walked off the end of the barge. Without hesitating, Don Elworthy, another crew member, dove into the cold water and swam to Blake's rescue.

After Mr. Turner left the ship at Long Beach, the Snohomish continued on her way, and H. B. Elworthy, president of Island Tug and Barge, said today he estimated she would reach the Canal Zone in a little over a week.

Anyone wishing to write to a crew member should write air-mail to the Snohomish, care of the Pacific Steam Navigation Co., Cristobal, Canal Zone. The air-mail letters should leave Victoria by Monday.

Degenerate Sought In Child Murder; Cash Reward Posted

TORONTO (CP)—A degenerate who dragged a woman to a west-end lot and attacked her five years ago is suspected in the rape and strangulation of 13-year-old Arlene Anderson, whose body was found in a lot in the same neighborhood Thursday, police said today.

Squadrons of detectives intensified a search for the man who served a sentence for the attack five years ago but was recently released from the penitentiary.

Mrs. Margaret Tomalin, who saw Arlene being led by the hand by a man she estimated to be between 35 and 40 years, with fair hair greying at the sides, told police his description fitted closely with that of the degenerate in question. The man she saw was wearing a sand-colored windbreaker and as she did not know him, she thought at the time it might have been the father of the child.

Arlene, partially paralyzed and with an impediment in her speech, disappeared from her home last Sunday and increasing numbers of citizens aided police in the search until a woman saw the body Thursday in a vacant lot nine blocks from her home on Marchmont Avenue, in northwest Toronto.

The girl had been strangled with her own underwear.

"There was the mark of a blow to the right side of the head," said Chief Coroner Smirle Lawson. "There was no fracture of the skull. She died of strangulation and in the opinion of Prof. W. L. Robinson (who performed an autopsy) she was raped after death—if not beforehand."

From the way the underwear was knotted about the girl's throat Coroner Lawson said the slayer "was somebody very powerful."

"It was a brutal murder," said Chief Detective Inspector Arch McCathie. "A reward of $2,000 has been offered for information leading to the arrest of the person who did it."

Quota Of Scotch In Ontario Jumps

TORONTO (CP)—Imported Scotch whisky still is rationed in Ontario, but Chairman William Griesinger of the Ontario Liquor Control Board, said today the new quota of 12 25-ounce bottles a month (compared with one 13-ounce bottle monthly in 1944) is so high that "it could practically be considered free sale."

Supplies of Scotch whisky arriving from Great Britain have increased recently as Britain increased export efforts to obtain

Cardinal McGuigan Soon To Return

ROME (CP)—James Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, completely recovered from a light attack of influenza, will leave tomorrow for Naples, en route to Canada, Vatican sources said today.

Cardinal McGuigan, who traveled to the Vatican to report on the recent Marian Congress in Ottawa at which he was papal legate, will sail from Naples Sunday aboard the liner Vulcania.

Sandy Nicholson, Rosthern, Sask., national treasurer of the C.C.F. Party, will address a meeting in the Mount Tolmie Hall, corner of Richmond Avenue and Cedar Hill Crossroad, Monday night at 8. His topic will be "Make This Your Canada."

Value Of Regional Planning Explained To Chamber Directors

"Recent legislation has given the provincial government new power to develop our province under a regional planning system. In my opinion, the people of the province should take advantage of this," H. Cuthbert Holmes, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, told directors of the Chamber at a meeting Thursday.

"Nature has given us the most beautiful area in the world, but it seems to me some of us are spoiling it. I believe regional planning is an excellent means of keeping our province a land of beauty."

These statements were offered by Mr. Holmes in urging directors to give "serious thought and attention to the matter of developing this province along a planned line."

Mr. Holmes suggested a committee be set up within the chamber to study the matter of regional planning and to confer with interested groups in all parts of the province in an effort to promote the planned system of development. The board of directors approved of the suggestion. It was recommended that two members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce sit with senior members appointed to the committee.

The meeting also decided to appoint a joint committee of senior and junior chamber members to study proposed inauguration of a business or sales tax. A committee of senior members will investigate possible revision of laws pertaining to the manufacture and sale of margarine. At present, laws prohibit the use of the butter substitute in Canada.

J. V. Johnson reported to the meeting a small committee had interviewed Works Minister E. C. Carson and the deputy minister of public works concerning the width of bridges on the island highway.

"We found our bridges compare favorably with bridges all over the North American continent," Mr. Johnson reported.

Modified Rationing Of Ontario Power

TORONTO (CP)—A modified form of power rationing, effective next Monday, Nov. 10, and coupled with penalties for infractions of the regulations, was announced today by the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission.

The announcement, by W. Ross Strike, second vice-chairman of the commission, bans use of electricity for these purposes:

Signs, show windows and ornamental lighting for decorative or advertising purposes; electric heating devices in stores or offices; interior lighting of business premises after business hours unless work is being done—with the exception of banks and other business places requiring light for protection.

The order also restricts use of electricity for floodlighting of parking lots, used car lots, service stations and outdoor industrial premises.

Asks All Moslems Ban Time Magazine

LONDON (AP)—Saheb Khan, president of the Pakistan Moslem League of Great Britain, said today he had appealed to the rulers of all Moslem states in the Middle East to ban Time Magazine from their countries.

He said his action was motivated by a recent article in Time concerning the current situation in India, which he described as "most shameful," and by the publication of an accompanying illustration picturing the prophet Mohammed mounted on horseback and waving a sword.

A dispatch from Cairo said police there had confiscated copies of the Oct. 27 issue of the magazine because the illustration violated Moslem regulations against graven images of the prophet.

Ottawa To Lift Seed Export Ban

OTTAWA (CP)—Lifting of restrictions, effective today on the export of several varieties of seeds was announced Thursday by the government.

After Nov. 10, the affected varieties—now subject to individual export permits—may be shipped under a blanket permit without restrictions.

Avak 'The Great' Must Leave U.S.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Avak Hagopian, bearded, 20-year-old self-professed faith healer, Thursday announced his request for an extension of his stay in United States had been denied by the immigration service and that he would leave Sunday for Mexico.

A spokesman for Dr. Clem Davies, minister, who sponsored a 35-state tour by the young mystic, said application would be made on Avak's behalf for a return from Mexico on new visas.

Judge Criticizes Shipwreck Inquest That Blamed Mate

VANCOUVER (CP)—Criticism of the coroner's inquest at Powell River into the Gulf Stream disaster, which cost five lives Oct. 11, was made Thursday in Admiralty Court by Mr. Justice Sidney Smith.

"It seems to us an attempt was made to turn it into an inquisition," he said at the opening of a Department of Transport inquiry here.

"It is no part of the coroner's duties to deal with navigation of the cause of the accident. A properly conducted inquest should have taken about an hour."

Mr. Justice Smith asked that a protest be sent Attorney-General Wismer. He asked Counsel F. A. Shepherd to draw the attention of the Attorney-General to the matter of conduct of the inquest.

"It seems to us the coroner's duty was to inquire into the deaths and not into the cause of the accident," Mr. Justice Smith added. He believed the coroner's court had exceeded its duties.

At Powell River, the jury returned a verdict placing "immediate blame" for the wreck on Second Mate Ray Ketchum, in charge when the motor vessel crashed on Dinner Rock.

Fire-Raiders Chased Island Doukhobor Leader, Inquiry Hears

SOUTH SLOCAN (CP)—Michael (The Archangel) Verigin, in a brief submitted to the special commission attempting to end Doukhobor internecine strife, stated Thursday he and his followers were forced from one town to another by "fire-raiding" terrorists.

"I appealed to the Sons of Freedom at Krestova in 1944 to give up nudism, but they suspected me of being a government agent and beat me up," he said.

An initiation fee of $25 was collected from each of Verigin's followers when he was forming his Hilliers community on Vancouver Island. Persons joining this community were obliged to take certain vows which "could be termed baptism."

"Early in 1946 human beasts broke into a store at Krestova operated by myself and other elders," he said. "The store and contents were burned and I was again beaten. With my followers I left Krestova for Robson, B.C. Later it was decided to move to Hilliers following several acts of terrorism against us."

Verigin declared charges of arson and embezzlement laid against him were "provocative and false."

May Increase Pay

OTTAWA (CP)—Acting Prime Minister St. Laurent said Thursday government would consider, in the light of the rising cost of living, a brief presented by the Civil Service Federation of Canada asking for salary boosts.

He added a decision would be reached in "comparatively short time" which was likely to be one that "would attempt to make the civil servants' situation comparable with that of other Canadians."

CANADA'S OFFER FROM A FINANCIAL POINT OF VIEW, the terms of the proposed agreement whereby Newfoundland would become the tenth province of the Dominion of Canada appear to be of a nature which should commend them to the people of that island. Described by Prime Minister King as "the best possible under the circumstances" and constituting the maximum which this country can offer, the terms as published yesterday provide that Canada would absorb $63,000,000 of the Newfoundland debt of $78,000,000; grant an annual maritime sub- sidy of $1,100,000; pay an annual grant of $180,000, and 80 cents per head of popula- tion; pay "transitional grants" of $3,500,000 a year for three years, tapering to lesser amounts over 12 years; provide full family allowances, pensions, unemployment insur- ance and other arrangements available to the other provinces, and assume the cost of other federal services. Against these, the Dominion would assume ownership of the Newfoundland Railway, which has shown a profit only in the peak business years of the war; take over the great Gander airport, in which this country already has invested $30,000, 000; operate the public radio broadcasting system, the fisheries and other services, and receive income and other tax revenues at the usual federal rates. On a "current ac- count" basis, the Dominion would receive annual income of $20,000,000 from various sources, but would pay out $26,000,000 in the form of family allowances, old age pen- sions and taxation subsidies. Newfoundland would be free to enter a taxation agreement with the Dominion, as have seven of the present provinces. A move to have Newfoundland join Con- federation was defeated by the Islanders in 1969, and another Canadian proposal 26 years later was rejected as "too miserly." In the intervening years, the strategically- placed island has suffered economic ups and downs as a direct member of the British Empire, resulting finally in a crisis which brought about the installation of a British Commission to govern the country. This commission is still existent, but the people will vote next summer on whether they wish to continue under it, form an independent government, join in the Canadian Confedera- tion, or adopt some other procedure. Newfoundland has had several years of prosperity as a result of the war boom, but her complete dependence on international fish and pulp prices makes her economy a precarious one. Her strategic value as an air and naval base was fully illustrated during the war, and the United States holds 99-year leases on several defence installations on the island. Health and educational services, due partly to the isolated position of many families engaged in fishing and lumbering, are generally below the prevailing Canadian standard, and entry into Confederation would no doubt result in a considerable betterment of social conditions. ANNIVERSARY ORATORY FOREIGN COMMISSAR MOLOTOV celebrated the occasion of the 30th anni- versary of the Russian revolution with a speech obviously delivered for home con- sumption, although there were occasional remarks which could have been designed for the edification of foreign observers. Such was his announcement that the secret of the atomic bomb "has long ceased to exist." But the bulk of the address was so filled with political bromides and half- truths that Mr. Molotov, familiar as he is with conditions outside the iron curtain, has laid himself open to a choice between two charges. Either he is completely blind to what is going on in the world—a highly unlikely supposition regarding one of his individual attainments—or he spoke delib- erately, tongue in cheek, for the further bam- boozlement of the "masses" to whom com- munist supposedly is dedicated. The Russian Foreign Minister's claim that the peoples of the world "see in the 30 years of Soviet socialism the approach of their own liberation from oppression and subjugation" falls strangely on the ears of a Canadian or American workman sitting in the comfort of his own home or driving to work in his own car. It must fall strangely, too, on the ears of the average Russian worker who, according to a number of im- partial estimates, receives only a fraction of the pay that the average North American worker, "oppressed by capitalism," enjoys for the same work. And death or labor camps face the Russian if he should try to strike for more. The claim that "our coun- try has suffered no setbacks in unemploy- ment, even during the most difficult periods of our economic life," must have brought a grim smile to many a Russian worker, par- ticularly if in the course of Red Army ser- vice he had caught a glimpse of what life can be beyond the Kremlin's authority. Ten million slave laborers could give ample evi- dence of the absence of "unemployment." The background against which he spoke provides all the answers necessary to Mr. Molotov's grandiose assertions of Soviet "freedom" and capitalist "enslavement." What is the situation? Two hundred mil- lion Russians fashioning their lives to the mold ordered by a handful of ambitious men in the Kremlin who are backed by a political party which contains less than two per cent of the population as members; labor unions deprived of all bargaining powers and reduced to the function of ob- taining more production from the workers with no increase in wages; liberal political leaders in the satellite nations being arrested and executed, or forced to flee westward to escape that fate, while the "popular" Com- munist regimes consolidate their hold on people too shattered by the war to resist; determined Russian attempts in the United Nations meetings to impose the Soviet point of view at the risk of stalling all attempts at international action. These facts, and a host of others, give the Soviet Foreign Commissar's words every indication of hypocrisy. CONTROVERSY ON ICE BACK INTO THE NEWS WHIRLS Ottawa's attractive Barbara Ann Scott, this time as the centre of a controversy be- tween Swiss figure-skating instructors. According to a coach of former champions, the Canadian girl, holder of world and European titles, "is the weakest figure skater to my mind we have had to hold the world's championship in many years." Her former teacher, also a native Swiss, has rallied to her defence, says her critic is probably jealous and contends that skaters on this continent now far surpass those of Europe. And buttressing his argu- ment comes a note from petite Sonja Henie, for 10 consecutive years holder of the world title, who states that from reports she has received, Barbara Ann has no cause to worry over what the rival coach says. So begins the war of nerves preparatory to the actual contest for Olympic honors at St. Moritz, Switzerland, next February. But the reaction of Canada's star is re- assuring. "We'll let the judges decide," was the comment in which she and her present instructor joined. As she continues her quest for the grand slam of figure-skating titles, the sweetheart of Ottawa appears as cool as the ice on which she performs. That is one of the characteristics of a top- notch champion. PAYING GUESTS STATISTICAL CALCULATIONS FOL- lowing in the wake of this year's record tourist influx from the United States tend to show that while numerically the visitors made this the best season in history, financially the Dominion may not have shown any great gain. Figures of the Bureau of Business Conditions, of New York, indicate that tourists who stayed in Canada for 24 hours or longer—the class from whom it is reasonable to expect the greatest volume of expenditures—totalled 823,000 during the first seven months of 1947. This was 8.5 per cent more than in the corresponding period a year ago. On the other hand, it is pointed out, Canadian visitors to the United States for whom travel visas were issued numbered 102,000, which is 24 per cent more than in the first seven months of 1946. While it is difficult to arrive at an exact figure, it is estimated that United States visitors to Canada spent about $50,000,000, or about $4,000,000 more than in the previous season. And it is felt that the great increase in Canadian visits to our southern neighbor may largely have eaten up this surplus. The tide of tourist spending, it is believed, may even contribute less to Canada's invisible exports than it did last year, and the present unfavorable balance of merchandise trade will have received little, if any, relief. NOT JUST A GAME ON PREVIOUS OCCASIONS WE HAVE expressed the view that the school traffic patrol system was a good idea. It would be even better if it worked more consistently. The scheme, of course, is one to direct motor traffic at dangerous inter- sections in a way to avoid danger to young children who must cross the road. In theory the plan is excellent. It is, however, a little disconcerting to a driver, who is waved through enthusiastically by the monitor on his corner, to find that the monitor on another is waving cross traffic through with equal enthusiasm. It is likewise un- nerving to find the youngsters whom the system was introduced to protect darting out from the sidewalk in their careless jostling within 20 yards of the prescribed crossings. As we have said, the system reflects a good idea. But there is room for improve- ment in its application. It is up to the boys in the special regalia to see that it is made effective by paying a little more attention to their jobs. OVERWHELMING VOTE THE COMMUNITY OF ALVIN, B.C., MAY not get beer parlors after all, although a recent plebiscite was 100 per cent in favor of them. The town has 48 residents, of whom seven were registered to vote. Only two turned out on polling day, and both voted in favor of sale of beer by the glass —well over the 55 per cent favorable majority required by law. However, the Liquor Control Board is not required to act on an application for a beer license if other considerations weigh against it. It may well be that the two thirsty residents of Alvin will have to meet alternately at each other's home to enjoy a convivial glass, for lack of a central commercial establishment. Matter Of Fact By JOSEPH ALSOP From Prague THE CREEPING TERROR IN CONTRAST to the rest of Europe, the surface of life here is wonderfully bust- ling and prosperous. Prague's baroque palaces and modern suburbs could still do with a lick of paint. But the shops are full of goods. The streets are jammed with traffic. And the people are downright fat. Beneath this happy surface, however, an ominous and tragic fact is only half con- cealed. Czechoslovakia is in the grip of a creeping terror. Since the end of the war, this has been a show place for optimists. It has been the place where Communists ruled like Democrats, where east and west could meet without an intervening iron curtain, where human freedom survived in the shadow of Soviet power. That period is coming to an end. Within a few months, unless drastic counter-measures are taken, the iron curtain will clank down with finality. The terror, now creeping under- ground, will be open and unashamed. Czechoslovakia will know the fate of Hungary, of Poland, of Romania and Bul- garia. IT SEEMS INCREDIBLE that a freedom- loving people, western in habit and tradi- tion, should accept such a fate when there are no Soviet troops in Czechoslovakia. But the Czechs bear deep scars of national neu- rosis from the experience of the last eight years. All of them are conscious that the Soviet armies in Germany are deployed along their borders. As for their govern- ment, President Benes, the beloved link with the past, is aged and ailing. The Foreign Minister with a great name, Jan Masaryk, is a paunchy man who makes jokes. And since the last election, the real control has been in the hands of the Com- munist led by Prime Minister Gottwald. LONG AGO, the Communists made their preparations for the event that is now occurring. At the head of the army, they placed General Svoboda, commander of the Czechoslovakia corps in Russia during the war, rumored holder of a party card, and in any case, a man who knows on which side his bread is buttered. Almost without exception, he has passed over western- experienced Czech officers and promoted those who have Russian associations. Above all, the army's counter-intelligence corps, which is really a secret service, has come under the domination of Communists or men who will do their bidding. The army is infiltrated and neutralized. The Information Ministry in overtly Com- munist hands, is ready to blare propaganda through Soviet-style loudspeakers in every town. Most decisive of all, the Ministry of the Interior, headed by the Communist Nosek, has transformed all branches of the national police into service organizations of the party. With complete control of the labor unions, and a considerable number of armed partisans, the Communists thus hold all the trumps for any game of coup d'etat. TO BE SURE, these trumps have long been in Communist hands. But until re- cently even the more western-minded Com- munist, like Prime Minister Gottwald and Deputy Foreign Minister Klementis, seem to have believed that their role was to play the game the western way. Czechoslovakia is economically dependent on its links with the west. When the Marshall Plan was an- nounced, Czech Communists and non-Com- munist alike voted unanimously to send a delegation to the preparatory conference in Paris. This occurred, interestingly enough, after the Czechs had been assured that Poland would do likewise by a visiting group from Warsaw, including influential Communist members of the Polish government. AS EVERYONE NOW KNOWS, the Czechs learned their error from Stalin in person. At Moscow, Gottwald had his head washed by the Generalissimo. Under the implied threat of rupture of the Czech- Soviet alliance, the whole cabinet voted un- animously to reverse its previous unani- mous vote. In the streets of Prague, people talked of "the new Munich." The incident showed the Czechs how far their independ- ence was impaired. What was far more im- portant, it also showed Moscow that some spirit of independence remained at Prague. The order is now known to have gone out at once, "Put the screws on." The screws are on today. The major manifestation of this fact so far has been the arrest of a large number of members of the Slovak Democratic party on charges of collabora- tion with "Fascist refugee wreckers." The atmosphere of terror is already tangible. Already leading non-Communist Czechs are known to be considering flight. And this is only the beginning of the story. ALL COMPETENT authorities here, for- eign and Czech, have privately agreed that the end will come with the open sup- pression of Czechoslovakia's hardly won independence, unless those who love their liberties act in the interval in self-defence. They must do so before next spring, the time of the elections for which the present regime is intended to prepare. Copyright, 1947, New York Herald Tribune Inc. "Great women are rarer than great men, because if a woman does work outside her home, she has to do the work of two whole people, and few men or women are strong enough for that. But Marie Curie was: she was wife, mother, housekeeper, nurse, cook and great scientist."—Eleanor Dooly broad- casting recently in the series "Great Lives." A Conservation Slogan Of Our Own 'Abide With Me' WHAT IS the secret of 'Abide With Me?' asks the Rev. Henry James Garland in an ar- ticle in the Sunday Times (Lon- don, Eng.), of recent date. "What is the reason for its universal appeal?" Millions of personal answers to these questions can perhaps be summed up in the generalization that it has grown constantly more apt, more full of meaning throughout the stormy 20th century. More and more people have found themselves in cir- cumstances in which it answered their spiritual needs. There is perhaps a deep-rooted and unspoken conviction in the hearts of ordinary men that in- deed 'the darkness deepens,' that other helpers have failed and other comforts fled, that change and decay are plainly visible in the material world around, that what is true in the individual emergency is true also in the world's fast developing inter- national emergency: 'I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.' The hymn itself is timeless. But an element of timeliness is introduced through preparations now under way to commemorate the centenary of its production in finally revised form. That was accomplished by Rev. Henry Francis Lyte, of Brixham, Devon, shortly before his death in France on Nov. 20, 1847. Its substance, set to music by Dr. W. H. Monk, has since pro- vided a well of comfort from which relief has been drawn by thousands in distress. About it have grown stories of its sooth- ing, healing and inspiring strength to those in adversity. SPIRITUAL SUSTENANCE Mr. Garland, secretary and organizer of the International Centenary Commemoration agency which is co-ordinating ceremonies throughout the world to honor the author, cites innum- erable incidents in which men and women have turned to "Abide With Me" in their hour of need and have become the braver for its repetition. He men- tions the spiritual sustenance drawn from it by prisoners of war in Japanese camps, by the men who stood on the beach at Dunkerque, by those who seemed doomed to sinking ships, by min- ers entombed by caves, by Nurse Edith Cavell as she faced the firing squad. From his inquiries Mr. Gar- land learned that thousands count it their favorite hymn and from the avalanche of mail he has received on the question he has voiced the conviction that "Be- lief in the ultimate values of Christianity is far deeper and more widespread among the hearts of men than the leaders of the churches could have dared to hope." On Nov. 16 special services will be held in many churches in many lands to synchronize with the unveiling in Westmin- ster Abbey's Poets' corner of a tablet to Mr. Lyte. Here, as else- where, emphasis will be placed on the inspiration that has come from "Abide With Me." The Moving Finger Writes . . . NO BOUNTY PAID Referring to a letter about the bounty paid on black bear and cubs, I have ascertained from the provincial government that no such bounty is paid on these animals. As a hunter myself, I would like to correct any false impres- sion derived from the suggestion that a bounty is paid. A. C. FUTCHER 1161 Rockland Ave. PAROCHIAL PARTISANSHIP Allow me the pleasure of ex- tending congratulations on your well-expressed opinion of the "leaden humor" of a contem- porary. The strange mentality exhib- ited by the author of "leaden humor" must be as microscopic in size as it is assuredly deficient in loyal Canadian citizenship. H. PETERS. 812 Newport Avenue. ANOTHER VIEW May I comment on the article, "Private Enterprise in Saskat- chewan," by James H. Gray, published on your editorial page of Monday, Nov. 3. This article is typical of propa- ganda that the C.C.F. can do nothing right. When we were first elected in Saskatchewan, we were subjected to a barrage from such writers as Gray, that we would confiscate all private en- terprise. Now that Mr. Douglas has given an eastern interest a 21- year lease to build and operate a salt refinery, it still does not meet with Mr. Gray's approval. But the vicious insinuation at the end of his article, where he com- pares the C.C.F. to the Bol- sheviks, inferring they would ex- appropriate the enterprise once they were established, does not take into account that the con- tract was for 21 years. With an election coming up next year, all the voters would have to do to save the enterprise, would be to return the Liberals back to power. W. A. JENKINS. Shawnigan Lake. GENEROSITY APPRECIATED Through the generosity and kindness of Mrs. Ross H. Palmer of "Gibraltar," Island Highway, and the magnificent operating ability of Cpl. West, a number of patients of Mount Saint Mary's Infirmary and a few of their friends, were treated to a splendid and very entertaining display of moving pictures. The selection of films by Mrs. Palmer was very much appreciated by the audi- ence as each film received vocifer- ous applause. The films were in color and the subjects many and varied. The whole was a sound and color display of an interesting and educational film showing of high order, and was thankfully accepted by all. Mrs. Palmer's gift of cigarettes to the smokers was much appreciated and thank- fully received. JOHN McDERMOTT. Mount Saint Mary's Infirmary, Victoria, B.C. HOSPITAL TRANSPORT With reference to the in- creased costs incurred by the Victoria hospitals for transport- ing their staff, it would appear that to forestall a future occur- rence a rider should be attached to the present B.C. Electric fran- chise by the civic authorities obliging the franchise holders to provide transportation for the hospitals in cases of emergency. The buses should be plainly marked "Hospital Only," and have only one or two interme- diate stops. The time may be later than you think for some of those in the hospitals, and this service would be appreciated by the in- mates. It is quite possible that the City Council will allow the hos- pitals to hold a tag day in Vic- toria to cover these extra expen- ses. There is no good standing outside the walling wall on the corner of Douglas and Yates Streets and saying that it can- not be done. Let's give it a trial anyway. JOHN HARVEY. 576 Johnson Street. Yes, Paul was bitten by a deadly serpent and suffered no harm. But he didn't ask for it to show off his faith. DESPERATE Australian News Letter Said an Australian Marine Branch official: "Since the war we have had to watch some ap- plications for lighthouse keeper's jobs pretty closely because some people will do anything to get a house." PETRILLO'S BAN Toronto Saturday Night If the recording instruments are now to be abolished by the Petrillo ukase we predict that in twenty years North America will be back where it was musically in 1900, with three tolerably good symphony orchestras in place of a hundred, and 99 per cent of the population unaware of the difference between a French horn and a clarinet. VALUABLE PRACTISE Halifax Herald The value of fire drill in the schools has been demonstrated many times. A notable instance of it occurred recently in Philadel- phia. There a three-alarm fire swept through the tower of the Benjamin Franklin High School. Thanks to well-organized and well-practised fire drill, 2,100 teachers and pupils quit the build- ing in orderly fashion within five minutes. There were no deaths and no injuries. There, surely, is ample proof of the value of fire drill. Most of the pupils were out of the building before they realized that this time it was a real fire and not merely another exercise.

DAVID SPENCER LIMITED*Molotov Barrage Brings U.S. Plan To Intensify 'Truth Campaign'

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Stung by the vigor of Russia's propaganda barrage, high government officials here were reported today to be considering an intensified United States "truth campaign" abroad.

At the same time it was learned the State Department is planning to ask Congress, possibly during the approaching special session, for an additional $1,500,000 for its "Voice of America" and other foreign information programs.

These disclosures came on the heels of Foreign Minister Molotov's declaration Thursday that the secret of the atom bomb "has long ceased to exist."

But it was other passages in Molotov's Red Revolution anniversary speech which stirred the greatest resentment among officials here.

The caustic-tongued diplomat contended anew, for instance, that the United States is trying to ring Russia with air and naval bases. Molotov mentioned in this connection the United States' interest in Greenland, which all the American republics have declared to be a vital link in the western hemisphere defense chain.

In general the attacks of Molotov, Deputy Foreign Minister Vishinsky and the Soviet press and radio seek to prove the United States is out to start a war against the Soviet Union and that the other countries of the world should line up with the U.S.S.R. in opposition to virtually all phases of United States foreign policy.

At the State Department this line is regarded as a three-way device to rally people inside Russia behind the government, frighten the smaller powers into support of Soviet foreign policy, and obscure the direction and intent of Russia's own activities in such places as eastern Europe.

Retired Civil Servants Press Living Cost Bonus

With a view to continuing their campaign for a cost-of-living bonus the B.C. Retired Civil Servants' Association at its monthly meeting held in the Macdonald Hall appointed a committee of 10 to take up the matter with the provincial government and local members of the Legislature.

The president, A. S. Tyrer, announced that many letters had been received from retired civil servants throughout the province inquiring about the aims of the association with a view to its extension in other quarters. In reply to these about a hundred circulars had been sent out with the information requested and more would be sent as soon as addresses could be obtained.

Editorials were read supporting the movement, and sympathetic replies had been received from R. W. Mayhew and Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, federal members. A letter to the Minister of Pensions at Ottawa in reference to old age pensions and the means test had been referred to Minister of Health and Welfare Paul Martin.

On a motion of Messrs. Logie and Johnson it was resolved that a committee of 10 be appointed to interview the provincial government and local members of the Legislature.

It was finally decided that the committee should consist of the following members: Messrs. Ingledew, Manson, Moyes, Naysmith, Logie and Food, and Mrs. Sweeney, Miss Cameron, Miss Taylor and Miss Bowron. It was also resolved that the president, Mr. Tyrer and the secretary be ex-officio members, with Mr. Tyrer as convener of the committee.

Mr. Dixon suggested that not only local members of the Legislature should be approached for their support, but also other members throughout the province.

Mr. Tyrer explained that they were circulating every superannuant whose name and address they could get, and with the co-operation of local government officials they should be able to reach practically all in time. All could take up the matter with their local members.

Mr. Food pointed to the anomaly that other people who had paid nothing towards it were receiving larger pensions than civil service employees who had paid in half.

To Resume Hearing In Grand Forks On Douk Problems

SOUTH SLOCAN (CP)—The first round in the British Columbia government's efforts to solve the intersect strife which has left a trail of bloodshed and destruction throughout the West Kootenay Valley was over today. Judge H. J. Sullivan of New Westminster, sitting as a royal commissioner since Oct. 14 hearing charges and counter-charges in an attempt to get at the root of the trouble, which has cost 10 lives and caused an estimated $1,000,000 damage by fire and explosion during the war between the radical Sons of Freedom and the orthodox Union of Spiritual Communities of Christ, will resume his hearings in Grand Forks, Nov. 18.

Michael, "The Archangel" Verigin, will continue his testimony. He came of his own volition to deny charges of arson and embezzlement, leveled by both the Sons and the orthodox group.

He called his former followers "killers" and named them responsible for the burnings and bombings.

Conflicting evidence with regard to "between $5,000 and $8,000" collected among the Doukhobors still has yet to be cleared up.

One witness said the money was raised to aid "orphans, widows and cripples," while the self-styled Archangel stated the money was for use at the elders' discretion.

The Grand Forks hearings are expected to last two or three days, returning to this tiny mountain town following a short adjournment. When testimony has been collected, the commission will visit Castlegar, Nelson, Nanaimo and Vancouver.

Automobile Skidded 124 Feet On Its Roof

Richard Westinghouse pleaded guilty in Saanich police court this week to a charge of dangerous driving on East Saanich Road last Saturday night and was fined $40 by Magistrate H. C. Hall, who also suspended accused's driver's license for three months. Sgt. Eric Elwell and Constable Robert Adrian attended the scene and the sergeant gave the court the circumstances, reporting the Westinghouse small car skidded for a distance of 184 feet, 124 feet of this on its roof after the car had turned over.

Scientists Find Plants Grow Without Sun If Given Sugar

NEW YORK (AP)—Ordinary table sugar is being used as a substitute for sunlight to make tomatoes grow.

This is reported by Dr. Robert Hockett, scientific director of the Sugar Research Foundation, which sponsored the sugar-sunlight experiments.

The sugar was sprayed in liquid form on the under-sides of tomato leaves by Prof. F. W. Went of the California Institute of Technology. These tomatoes were grown in a greenhouse. Their natural light was cut down until the plants became stunted.

Then the sugar spray was used and the stunted tomatoes grew as well as those getting adequate light.

Hockett said no practical tests of the uses of this discovery have been made, but that it is hoped to make some this winter.

The results are not expected to be confined to tomatoes. The sugar ought to work on all kinds of plants. Hockett said it seems possible that sugar, supplementing light in greenhouses, may pay off in terms of larger, earlier and more numerous fruits and flowers.

Went found also that when tomatoes are transplanted, they recover from the shock quicker if their leaves have been sugar-sprayed a few hours before the transplanting.

Hockett explained that substituting sugar for light seemed a natural experiment because of the way that plants make their own sugar. All plants produce some sugar along with their starches.

This they do by taking carbon dioxide from the air, water from the soil, and sunlight, and mixing the three with the green coloring matter of leaves, chlorophyll. The amount of sugar so made rises with the amount of light falling on the leaves. So it occurred to scientists to substitute ready-made sugar for the light.

New Elk Officers Take Over Duties

Installation of officers of B.P.O. Elks, No. 2, took place at the lodge rooms last night when George Grant, district deputy grand exalted ruler of Lake Cowichan Lodge, No. 293, assisted by Percy Payne, past D.D.G.E.R., and Alex Peden, Victoria, installed the following officers:

Claude C. Howard, exalted ruler; James R. Begg, immediate past exalted ruler; Redmond P. Collins, leading knight; Ray E. Jones, loyal knight; Bruce Dixon, lecturer knight; Cecil L. Wright, historian; Charles V. Milton, secretary-treasurer; Carl V. Mackie, inner guard; Don Johnston, tyler; Archie MacBride, esquire; Harry Scott, chaplain; William Holmes, organist; Reg. Hayward Jr. and Percy Fitzsimmons, trustees.

The installation was well attended by members from mainland and up-island lodges.

Approximately 150 set down to the banquet supper following the ceremonies.

Would Set Up Second Radio Station Here

OTTAWA (CP)—The board of governors of the CBC at meetings here Nov. 28 and 29 will hear applications for permission to establish five new radio broadcasting stations. It was announced Thursday.

The applications include that of David M. Armstrong, who will ask permission to establish a 250-watt station at Victoria, B.C.

Bookies Able To Get Telephones, Court Notes
VANCOUVER (CP)—In passing sentence on a betting-house operator, Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson commented Thursday that while thousands of Vancouverites seemed unable to get telephones, "bookies" could get "all they want."
Lloyd Green, convicted "book-maker," had two telephones in his west Hastings Street room where he conducted his business. It was stated in evidence. He was fined $180.
The man protested they were there when he moved in.

Britain Will Give Coal To Europe

LONDON (Reuter)—Britain will export 6,000,000 tons of coal next year to let the countries of Europe have coal without paying dollars for it if the Marshall Plan for aid to Europe comes into operation. Sir Stafford Cripps, Minister for Economic Affairs, told a coal conference Thursday.
This figure amounts to 3 per cent of Britain's 200,000,000-ton annual target.

W.B.A. Review Realizes $200

Over $200 was realized at the sale of work and tea held by W.B.A. Review No. 1, at the K. of P. Hall.

Mrs. Caroline O'Brien, provincial field director, presided at the opening and was presented with a gift by Mrs. A. Barraclough, vice-president of the Review, who also received a corsage bouquet.

Tea arrangements were in charge of Mrs. M. Trowsdale and Mrs. A. Davis, assisted by Mrs. H. Graas, Mrs. Laura Roberts, Misses May Minnis and E. Henson. Stalls were conveyed by Mesdames M. Stephens, K. McDonald, F. Baillies, B. Cameron; contests, Mesdames A. Barraclough and A. Taylor; chicken dinner, donated by Miss M. Laird, Mrs. A. Ritchie.

A short business meeting was held in the early evening when Mrs. Alice Ritchie was appointed financial secretary. A presentation was made to Mrs. B. McAllister in recognition of 21 years service in the Review. Later, a card party and social hour was enjoyed.

Women's Group For Optimists

At a banquet and dance held Thursday evening in the Kit Kat Club for wives and members of the Optimist Club, President Don Frith suggested that the women form a club of their own, and also that a Junior Optimist Club should be formed sometime in the near future. Ted Baker was in charge of the evening's entertainment.

First Meeting — The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans, Unit 12, held their first meeting since the presentation of their charter on Wednesday, with president Mrs. M. Carver in the chair. Twelve new members were initiated and seven new applications read and accepted. All members will be notified of a change in meeting place as it was agreed that the present hall is not large enough. Plans for the poppy campaign were completed, and committees selected. Social convener is Mrs. J. Recke. A card party is being arranged for Nov. 20.

To Preside At King's Daughters' Tea

Mrs. H. E. Young, has been invited to preside at a tea to be held in connection with the King's Daughters' annual pre-Christmas bazaar, in the Y.W.C.A., Saturday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock. Others invited to pour tea are Mrs. Percy E. George, Mrs. Edwin Tomlin, and Mrs. Bertha Parsons. Mrs. W. Bremner is general convener of the affair and proceeds will be used to further work of the King's Daughters' lunch-rooms, where many business girls spend their lunch hour, bringing their own lunch and purchasing tea or coffee in the rooms.

Princess' Wedding Cake Will Be Sent All Over The World

LONDON (AP)—Friends of Princess Elizabeth in many parts of the world will be able to sample her wedding cake, court sources said today.

Of the 12 cakes which the Princess consented to accept, only one is "official." It will be served at the wedding breakfast in Buckingham Palace, and she herself will have a portion of it. The others will be displayed at the palace reception and later cut and distributed among friends at home and abroad, in keeping with Royal tradition.

"The cakes, being masterpieces of the bakers' and confectioners' art, will be beautifully ornamental," one court source said. "But let no one think their purpose is exclusively artistic nor that time—within reasonable limits—will stale their fine quality."

Girls' organizations and other groups in Australia and elsewhere in the Commonwealth who sent ingredients for the cakes will be remembered in the sharing. So also will be relatives and friends of the Royal Family abroad who are unable to attend the wedding.

When the King and Queen were married, their No. 1 wedding cake stood nine feet tall, weighed 800 pounds, and provided scores of gift slices which were sent all over the world. Nothing so ambitious was attempted for the Princess' wedding in an austere age.

Princess Elizabeth's cakes are being made from recipes kept

The Queen's Gown

LONDON (AP)—Spokesmen for the royal family announced today that the Queen will wear an apricot-and-gold lame gown with a pointed train and the Order of the Garter for the wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Lieut. Philip Mountbatten Nov. 20.

"From a v-shaped waistline bands of brocade are drawn up to each shoulder where the drapery is gathered, and falls over the shoulders in the shape of a semi-circular draped cape," an official description said.

The gown has long, tight sleeves and a full-length skirt ending in the pointed train. The Queen will wear a hip-length sable cape, presented by the Hudson's Bay Company. Her hat will be of apricot shade with amber-tinted feathers.

Meet For First Time In 31 Years

Mrs. L. Power and her brother, W. H. Whittingham, met last week for the first time in many years, when Mr. and Mrs. Power arrived in Victoria from Halifax, to make their home. The last time brother and sister met was in London, England, during the First World War, Mrs. Power was a nurse in overseas service and Mr. Whittingham serving with the Canadian army. Mr. Power, has just retired from the post office staff in Halifax after 35 years' service. At present they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Whittingham at their Estevan Avenue home.

Former Judge-Advocate To Make Home Here

Among recent arrivals in the city are Major and Mrs. S. S. Penny with their daughters, Nancy and Joyce, who have come from Vancouver to make their home here. Major Penny was formerly a Judge-Advocate, Pacific Command, and during the war years, Mr. Penny was active as assistant commandant of the Women's Ambulance Corps of Vancouver. Major and Mrs. Penny are at present staying at Glenshiel Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ree, 179 Bushby Street, will be at home to their friends next Tuesday, from 2 until 5 and from 8 to 11, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Higson, who have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tyrer, 528 Linden Avenue, for the past three months, left Wednesday for New York from where they will sail aboard the Queen Mary for their home in Parbold, England.

Mr. William Townsend of Bermuda, has just arrived in the city after having motored across the continent from Nova Scotia. He was in Victoria earlier this year, and plans to reside here. At present he is the guest of Mrs. A. Shirley, View Royal Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Moody who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allister McFarlane, 845 Falkland Road, left for their home in Hollywood, Calif., on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Moody made the trip, both ways, by plane.

Mrs. Robert Haslett, the former Miss Marjorie Lindgren, will be a visitor in the city from Seattle this week-end to attend performances of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, in which her brother, Mr. Robert Lindgren, appears. Mrs. Haslett will stay at the Empress Hotel.

Mrs. Murray Patrick, and her two children, Linda and Richard, who have been staying with Mrs. Patrick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Farr, Burdick Avenue, left recently to join Mr. Patrick in St. Paul, Minnesota. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lester Patrick and Miss I. Poole, who will go on to New York for the winter months.

A shower for Miss Doty Bourke, a November bride-elect, was given Sunday afternoon by her junior bridesmaids, Miss Billie Bourke, and Miss Marie Hardy. Guests were the Misses Jeanette and Anne Christian, Pat Campbell, Roberta and Christine White, and Bobby and Ronnie Bourke.

Mrs. Frank Edgell entertained 16 young guests at a children's party this afternoon at her Rutland Road home, in honor of her small daughter Elaine, who was celebrating a fifth birthday.

Mrs. George Robertson and Mrs. William Acland were hostesses recently at the home of the former, in honor of Miss Laura Trace, who is to be married this Saturday. The bride-elect was presented with a corsage bouquet and the gifts, concealed in a decorated box. Guests were Mesdames W. P. Trace, G. Ballantyne, P. Playne, A. MacLean, A. Trace, W. Trace, A. Harris, R. Wratten, Misses Alyce McLeod, M. Tolputt, Margaret Mackay and Lorraine Druce.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. F. Wilson entertained on Hallowe'en night, at their home on San Juan Avenue, Gordon Head, in honor of their niece, Miss Kathleen Stewart, who is to be married this Saturday night. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Dallimore, Mr. and Mrs. E. Horan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Adam, Mr. and Mrs. G. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. F. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Keppen, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hilton, Miss Ida de Candido, Mr. A. Zuick and Mr. and Mrs. A. Steward.

Honoring Miss Lynette Priestley, a popular November bride-elect, a surprise miscellaneous shower was given by Miss Betty Jean Saunders at the home of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, 1262 Kings Road. Upon arrival, the bride-elect was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations, while Mrs. A. F. Priestley and Mrs. R. G. Stoffer, mother of the groom-elect, received corsage bouquets of gardenias. The gifts were concealed in an overflowing "pot of gold" at the end of a brightly-colored rainbow. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served from a lace-covered table, centred with a basket of mauve chrysanthemums. Other guests were Mrs. Mary Stoffer, Mrs. R. W. Emerson, Mrs. E. McIntyre, Misses Margaret Spence, Jessie Robertson, Rose Webb and Irene Spencer.

Put your gayest scarves to work to pep up a wardrobe that's making its stand.

Dorothy Dix

Undoubtedly there are many men who, like Roark Bradford's hero, are born with an itching foot and a wandering around in their weary minds, and who can never see a skirt without getting up and chasing it. These are hopeless cases, and all that their wives can do is to take 'em as they are, or leave 'em.

There are other men who are domestic as the housecat, but whose wives see a rival in every woman, and who wouldn't dare to hire a secretary under 70 years of age, or even to glance at the picture of a pin-up girl. And there are still other married men who are not entirely immune to feminine charm and who are subject to romantic attacks that may or may not develop into something serious, according to the way they are handled.

But, however it is, the thing that turns life into cinders, ashes and dust for innumerable wives is the unfaithful husband, or the husband they suspect of being unfaithful. They want to monopolize their husbands, body, soul and pocketbook, and the mere thought that their Johns can like to look at a pretty girl, or be interested in a clever woman, sends them down into the bottomless pit of despair.

Ill-health, poverty, balked ambitions, the loss of members of their families, are nothing compared to the suffering that wives endure from pangs of jealousy, and what makes their situation so pitiful is that when they are confronted with the problem of a straying husband, they almost invariably take the wrong method of dealing with him.

You would think that when any wife saw that her husband was losing his taste for her that she would have gumption enough to get busy cooking up a new dish of attractions, but only a few wise babies have sense enough to do this. The average wife doesn't try to get Friend Husband back into the domestic fold by artful and alluring ways. She attempts to drive him into the corral by snapping the whip of duty over him, and he bolts when he gets to the gate.

Naturally it is a heart-breaking experience for a wife to perceive that her husband is preferring some other woman to her, but, as Mr. Cleveland used to say, it is a condition and not a theory that confronts her, and it is up to her to deal with it with common sense instead of hysteria. And it is nothing less than tragic that a time when she should make herself most attractive, she presents the sorry spectacle of a sad sack. Her eyes are red-rimmed with weeping. She has quit-combing-her-hair. She has on her oldest and shabbiest clothes, and she offers an invidious comparison to the Other Woman.

Mrs. E. Glover, left, president of the South Vancouver Island District Women's Institute Board, presents a cheque of $307.80 to Mrs. F. E. Dowdall, second from the left, chairman of the committee in charge of the Mayor's Food For Britain Fund. Money was collected through a contest held by institutes in connection with a hand-woven bedspread made by Mrs. W. S. Coulter on the right. Holding the quilt are Mrs. Stella Gummow, second from the right, provincial superintendent of women's institutes and Mrs. A. S. Dennis, president, Provincial Board of Women's Institutes. The presentation was made at closing session of the South Vancouver Island conference this week.

Mulliner acted as judges of costumes. Movies were shown and each child received a small gift. Mrs. W. Blair and Mrs. G. O. Hughes were in charge of refreshments. The executive will meet at the home of Mrs. N. R. Kennedy, 1390 Vista Heights, Nov. 18 at 8. Next general meeting will be held Dec. 1 in the school auditorium at 7.45, when 25 mixed voices will render Christmas selections and there will be community carol singing.

Quadra — The annual fall bazaar of Quadra P.T.A. was held in the school auditorium. Mrs. E. Oakley, immediate past president, opened the affair, and was the recipient of a corsage bouquet presented by the president, Mrs. D. Dakers. General convener was Mrs. J. Almond. Co-convener of stalls: Mrs. F. Pomeroy, aprons; Mrs. F. Barry and Mrs. Dakers, fancy work; Mrs. F. Archer, flowers; Mrs. N. A. Hutton, home cooking; Miss H. Bradshaw, white elephant; Miss A. Vye, candy; Mrs. B. Martindale and Mrs. J. Barr, dixie cups; Mrs. W. A. Noel, dressed doll; Mrs. F. House, tea arrangements. Honored guests were Mayor Percy E. George and Mrs. George, Mrs. H. A. Beckwith, Mrs. E. Evans, and Alderman J. Mulliner. A successful whist drive was held in the evening, convened by Mrs. H. E. Graham. Total proceeds amounted to $378.50.

Clubwomen's News

Holly Bazaar — At a meeting of the Junior Auxiliary to the Protestant Orphanage on Tuesday plans were discussed for the annual Holly Bazaar, to be held Dec. 6 at the orphanage. Miss Dorothy Harding reported that the Hallowe'en party held at the home was successful, and birthday presents for the month of November will be distributed by Mrs. Nessie Brown and Miss Marjorie Coates. A work party will be held tonight at the home of Miss Phyllis Mugford, 531 Montreux Avenue.

Fall Fair — On Wednesday afternoon in the parish hall Rev. G. D. Kendell opened a fall fair held under the auspices of the afternoon branch of St. Saviour's W.A. In charge of the needlework stall was Mrs. B. Jacklin, assisted by Mesdames A. Cody-Johnson, F. Lammadge and E. Powell, Mrs. C. Clarke and Mrs. F. Willis convened home-cooking stalls, and afternoon tea was arranged by Mrs. C. White assisted by Mesdames D. Hughes, M. Craigdallie, W. Ashworth and G. Proceck.

Price Controls Urged
By Institute Board

Closing sessions of the South Vancouver Island District Women's Institute conference, saw a resolution presented by Brentwood W.I., asking that a study of price control be resumed in Canada, passed. A resolution urging that material of a harmful nature found on newsstands be kept from children and also that something be done with regard to lurid programs on the radio and in motion pictures was also passed.

Mrs. G. V. Williams, district board director, and Mrs. E. Glover, president district board, presided at the final meetings.

Dr. E. F. Lucas gave an informative talk on some of the work of High School correspondence courses and Mrs. Stella Gummow, provincial superintendent of Women's Institutes, described the second week of her stay in Holland following the meetings of the Associated Country Women of the World, in which she was conducted on a tour of the country.

Committee Named — Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. J. V. Johnson were named a nominating committee at a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Y.M.C.A., held in the members' lounge Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Walter Walker presided. Conveners' reports were given and plans made to hold the next meeting at Mrs. Walker's home on World Road.

Pat Weaver Heads Lake Cowichan Fire Brigade

LAKE COWICHAN — The newly reorganized volunteer fire brigade will hold a fire practice and testing of the new siren on Sunday in the new fire hall here.

A meeting was held in the Community Hall, when Pat Weaver was elected chief. Jim Riddick is deputy chief and W. A. Chapell, secretary.

T. R. Pauls was accorded a vote of thanks for his work in organizing the brigade and for acting chief until the brigade could be formed.

At the next meeting, the matter of dividing the village into zones with special signals for each, will be arranged. A glass box is to be placed over the button controlling the siren. Village commissioners will be asked to post signs warning anyone that they will be liable to a heavy fine should they place false alarms or damage equipment.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for a dance to be held the latter part of this month by the fire department. Funds will be raised to purchase ladders and smoke masks. It is hoped to make a firemen's dance an annual affair.

Alberni To Inquire Cost Of Airport

PORT ALBERNI — While Port Alberni City Council this week approved placing of a plebiscite to the voters on the question of the city leasing and operating a municipal airport, Alberni council decided to first investigate financial obligations of the city.

Although J. Moul of Port Alberni Airways, told Alberni council only about $50 would ready Christie Farm, a proposed site near Alberni, Ald. A. D. McGillivray moved that council check possible necessary expenditures with the Department of Transport.

Discuss Salaries Of Alberni Teachers

PORT ALBERNI—Revision of teachers' salaries in the Alberni district will be discussed this week at a meeting of school trustees and the teachers' salary committee.

Some teachers feel that the board has, in some instances, not lived up to the agreements of the present scale.

The teachers expect the board to suggest details of a new scale, while the board, on the other hand, feels that the proposals should come from the teachers.

Catholic Church For Lake Cowichan

LAKE COWICHAN—Plans for the erection of a Roman Catholic Church in this community are in the formative stages here.

Bishop James Hill of Victoria visited the district recently and visited a proposed site for the church. As yet no details are available, with date of start of construction dependent largely on the supply of materials.

At present, services in the district are held in a private home. A Catholic women's auxiliary was formed here recently.

To Pour Concrete For Dry Creek Bridge

PORT ALBERNI — F. W. Souther, contractor for the Dry Creek bridge, states concrete will be poured late next week if the steel, reportedly at Vancouver, arrives here Monday or Tuesday.

After the regulation curing period for concrete of 28 days, the bridge should be ready for traffic, he said.

Because of the lack of steel, motorists have had to detour around the torn-up bridge in downtown Port Alberni for several months.

Ratepayers' Meeting

LANGFORD — Ratepayers of Langford area will meet Thursday night at 8 in the Community Hall, when Dr. J. L. Gayton will speak on public health.

'I'm Glad I Got Caught' Youth Tells Magistrate

VANCOUVER (CP) — John Petrunia, 18, sentenced to six months in a Borstal institute, told the court Thursday: "I'm glad I got caught."

He was convicted of carrying a revolver and taking an automobile without consent.

"If I hadn't been arrested, the gun might have been used, although not by me," he told Magistrate H. L. Edmonds.

Peter Ganger, who said taking the car was "just a Halloween prank," was given a three-month sentence.

Clipper Forced Back While On Long Hop

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Pan-American Airways clipper bound for Honolulu turned back because of trouble in one of its four engines Thursday night and landed safely at the San Francisco airport early today.

Immediately after its arrival, the 23 passengers and their baggage were transferred to another clipper for resumption of the flight which was interrupted by the mechanical trouble 1,080 miles at sea, about halfway to the Hawaiian Islands.

An airline spokesman said there were no incidents and that it only resulted in a delay of several hours in the passengers' trip.

U.S. Shortage Acute For Anti-Freeze

NEW YORK (AP) — Shortage of anti-freeze this winter will be "the worst on record," a leading manufacturer said today amid reports that motorists already are paying black market prices.

Both the permanent type anti-freeze, which has an ethylene glycol base, and the methanol alcohol type, which will evaporate with use, were reported scarce in early autumn. But demand has reached such proportions that despite increased production makers say they cannot meet it.

R.C.A.F. Training Crews To Fly Near-Supersonic Speed Planes

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada's regular air force is preparing personnel to fly the near-supersonic speed planes of tomorrow. Air force headquarters disclosed today that the first group of 21 postwar aircrew now undergoing training at No. 1 Manning Depot, Toronto, have been given, among other tests, special scientific screening to determine whether they "are physically capable of flying at near supersonic speeds."

The air force said that special equipment of the Institute of Aviation Medicine at Toronto is being used to make these tests.

The class, 15 of whom were selected from the ranks of serving airmen who enlisted last year, begin their careers as commissioned aircrew officers on the eight-week initial training course during which they are given many other tests besides those for near-supersonic speed flying.

On completion of initial training they will have been typed either as pilots or radio-navigators and will be posted to the flying training school at Centralia, Ont., or to the radar and communications school at Clinton, Ont., for pilot and radio-navigator training.

The air force said that although wartime veterans of the R.C.A.F. form a large pool of trained fliers which could be drawn upon in an emergency, "it is considered necessary to reach into the ranks of younger men for future aircrew."

Final Hearings On Freight Boost Before Transport Board Monday

OTTAWA (CP) — The final increases will open here Monday. After a recess from Oct. 17, the Board of Transport Commissioners will resume hearings then for closing arguments by a battery of lawyers representing 23 railroads and the seven provinces opposing their proposed increases.

The arguments will close off public sessions on the protracted case, leaving only the final decision of the six-man board to be rendered.

VISITED PROVINCES
The sittings, opened here last Feb. 11, and since then the commissioners have held hearings in every province. The railways' application for general 30 per cent increases was filed almost exactly a year ago.

Last month the railways lost a round of their fight for higher charges. The board ordered suspension of 30 per cent increases which they had proposed to effect Nov. 1 in their competitive rates when the prices board de-controlled railway tariffs.

The board ruled in a majority judgment that these charges should be considered concurrently with the general application for new rates.

The last stage of the hearing is expected to last about three weeks.

Final railway argument will be launched for the Railway Association of Canada by Isaac B. Pitblado, chief counsel; Hugh O'Connell and A. K. Dysart for the C.N.R., and C. F. H. Carson and F. C. S. Evans for the C.P.R. Counter-argument will be made for these seven provinces: The Maritimes by Hon. J. L. Ralston; Manitoba, Wilson E. McLean; Saskatchewan, M. A. MacPherson; Alberta, J. J. Fravelley, and British Columbia, C. K. Guild and Charles W. Brazier.

Jury Reduces Manslaughter To Dangerous Driving

An Assize jury reduced a charge of manslaughter to that of dangerous driving against Tong Yen, 953 Empress Avenue, who was tried in connection with the death of Miss Mary E. Le-page, 80, 1157 Hilda Street, who was fatally injured when struck by an automobile driven by the accused on April 20, last.

The jury, after deliberating for about one and half hours, returned with a verdict of not guilty of manslaughter, but guilty of driving in a manner dangerous to the public. He was remanded by Mr. Justice A. M. Manson until the end of the Assizes for sentence.

At the trial Tong Yen testified in his own defence, and told the court that he didn't see the victim standing at the corner of Fort and Vancouver Streets until he was within five feet of Miss Le-page. He contended that his attention was diverted for a moment by a car which was approaching "very slow."

"When I looked ahead again," said the accused, "I saw 'some dark object about 5 feet in front of the car. I swung the wheel to the left and applied the brakes, bringing the vehicle to a stop within eight feet."

The accused denied he was speeding. He said he had supper between 6 and 7.40 on the night of the accident, had taken only a small drink of Scotch whisky, and had not consumed any liquor after the meal.

Defense Counsel H. W. Davey, in his address to the jury, said there was no evidence to show the accused had consumed liquor to an extent which made it unwise to drive his automobile, and he also stressed the short distance the accused took to bring his car to a stop after striking the victim.

The case for the Crown submitted to the jury by prosecutor W. C. Moresby, K.C., centred around testimony of three witnesses, who had stated the accused car traveling at an excessive speed.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

THERE'S always some sports fan who likes to delve into figures in the final reckoning of a major event. One enthusiastic Portland scribe gathered together a lot of cards, got busy with an adding machine and came up with some mighty interesting digits on the recent Ryder Cup golf matches. First of all, he points out, the Americans didn't really win the cup at all, despite the fact they took 11 out of 12 matches. The Britons, it appears, took two less strokes for the 18-hole distance than the Americans, 71.46 to 73.78.

DELIVING further he found, however, that in the matter of putting the great superiority of the American professionals showed up. The U.S. cup players averaged 31.31 putts for 18 holes against the Britishers 32.38. It doesn't seem like much, but that difference could—and did—spell the difference. The Britons generally matched their opponents stroke for stroke off the tees and on the fairways, but in putting and more especially in chipping, they fell far short. The pros averaged .15 strokes over par on the par four holes as a whole and .07 over par on the par fivers.

QUITE often boxing fans listening to the Friday night broadcasts from New York hear the name of Ruby Goldstein announced as the third man in the ring. Goldstein, one of New York's top fight referees, comes up with a theory on just how to make good in the fistie trade. "When you're young, you gotta buckle down for seven years," he says. "You train hard and take care of yourself all of the time, not just occasionally. You learn all you can and you make a wad. Then you can have your fun later." Goldstein was asked how many kids are willing to train the way he did 20 years ago. "A lot of them," he replied. "You'd be surprised to see how many youngsters train just as hard—but a lot of them quit as soon as they get a couple of good punches."

RECENT death of Man O' War at the age of 30 has caused Hugh Fullerton to point out that several other thoroughbreds have reached advanced years. He reminds horse lovers there's a hangtail in the current horse show at New York that is 29 years old. The grandpaw is High Tide, a gelding owned by Milton Potter of Westbury, N.Y., which in September won a $1,000 prize at a show. Bartender won the U.S. jumping championship at the age of 18. Intrepid showed up well the same year at 21. One New York horseman says he once hunted with a horse which was 28 and the nag never jumped until he was 25.

Canadiens' Punch Line Deadly In N.H.L.

Veteran Elmer Lach Stars As Toronto Blanked; Detroit Shares Lead

A bartender experienced in mixing that knockout concoction known as a "Mickey Finn" looked like the best bet today for any National Hockey League club seeking a means of halting Montreal Canadiens' potent "punch line."

One look at the scoring statistics is all anybody needs to realize why an opposing coach must shudder every time Dick Irvin, the Canadiens' mentor, motions Maurice (Rocket) Richard, Elmer Lach and Hector (Toe) Blake out on the ice. The punch line boys have run up a total of 14 goals in eight games, a good deal better than half the team accumulation.

It was the same old story last night when Canadiens ground out a 3 to 0 victory over Toronto Maple Leafs. The punch line showed the way with Lach firing home two goals and Richard getting two assists. At the same time, Detroit Red Wings moved into a first-place tie with Boston Bruins by squeezing out a 2 to 1 victory over New York Rangers. Leafs and Canadiens mixed it up in hectic fashion throughout the result referee Bill Chadwick dished out 19 penalties. A free-for-all broke out two minutes from the end that brought majors to defencemen Kenny Reardon of Canadiens and winger Vic Lynn of Leafs and minors to defence-man Bill Barliko of Leafs and centre Billy Reay of the Habs.

DRAWS $25 FINE

In the first period, another flare-up led to penalties to Reardon, Richard and the Leafs' Gus Mortson. Jacques Locas of Canadiens also enlivened the proceedings, while sitting on the Hab bench, by making some uncomplimentary remarks to referee Chadwick. Locas collected a misconduct penalty that meant an automatic $25 fine.

Interspersed with all this fustian, feudin' and fightin' the punch line got in its ticks at the Leafs. Lach drove home a rebound of Richard's shot in the first period and then counted again in the second period on a pass from 'The Rocket'. Bobby Carse fired Canadiens' other score in the middle session.

All the scoring in the Detroit-New York game came in the opening period and rookies accounted for the lot. Jimmy McFadden sent Wings out in front in the third minute with Rangers drawing even at the midway mark with a goal by defenceman Frank Shero, brought up from New York Rovers for the fray. Max McNab grabbed the winner towards the end of the period. Wings used the triumph to pull into the first place slot with Bruins, each with 11 points. Canadiens took over sole possession of third place with 10 points, dropping Leafs to fourth with eight. Rangers have collected six points while Chicago Black Hawks still have to mark up a point.

Summaries follow:

CANADIENS-TORONTO
First Period — 1. Montreal, Lach (Richard), 7:34. Penalties: Watson, Lach, Lonn, Harmon, Reardon (2), Thomson, Richard (2), Mortson.
Second Period — 2. Montreal, Carse (Curry, Quilty), 3:49; 3. Montreal, Lach (Richard), 15:17. Penalties: Mortson (2), Lach.
Third Period — No scoring. Penalties: Locas (18 minutes misconduct), Mortson, Barliko, Reay, Reardon (major), Lynn (major).

DETROIT-RANGERS
First Period — 1. Detroit, McNab (Guidolin, Horeck), 2:43; 2. New York, Shero (O'Connor, Hextall), 10:23; 3. Detroit, McNab (Conacher), 15:23. Penalties: Lawick, McCall.
Second Period — No scoring. Penalties: Abel (major and 2 minors), Stewart, Gardner (major and minor).
Third Period — No scoring. Penalty: Guidolin.

Two Vic High Squads Set Basketball Pace

Playing on their home court yesterday, Houses 3 and 4 of Victoria High School gained decisions over House 2 and Mount Douglas respectively, to pull into a deadlock for top place in the senior boys' interhigh cage loop with two wins in as many starts. Other games yesterday saw Oak Bay nip House 1 of V.H.S., 27 to 22, at the Cranmore Street gym, and Esquimalt edge Mount View, 25 to 21, on the latter's home court.

First game of the twin-bill at Vic High saw House 3 edge House 2, 29 to 24. Winners jumped into an early 9 to 3 lead at the quarter. By the second quarter, Jimmy John, mainstay of House 2, had amassed four personals, and was used sparingly till the final quarter. Winners increased their margin to 14 to 7 at the half.

Early in the third frame, Elmer Matthews tossed a long pass to Dave Lowe who easily popped the counter, giving House 3 a 10-point margin. Near the end of the quarter, however, House 2 lads opened up with an attack that closed the gap, 25 to 17, at the whistle. Last quarter saw John of House 2 show some fine hustle in an attempt to square the contest. After John sank two free shots to make the score 26 to 20, Chick Geisser potted another basket to leave losers just four points back. Matthews looped a foul for House 3, but Al Husband scored a field goal to close the gap to three points. Matthews sank a two-pointer near the end to clinch the contest.

WEAK SHOOTING

Second game of the double-bill saw some poor shooting on both sides, with House 4 having an edge over Saanichites to win the affair 20 to 10. Winners went ahead 6 to 1 at the end of the first canto, but Mount Douglas held most of the play in the second quarter, holding Vic High scoreless, to leave the score 6 to 5. Vics took advantage of some hurried shooting by losers in the third to pull ahead 12 to 7, and in the final quarter, Bhagat Singh scored three field goals as victors outscored Mount Douglas 8 to 3.

Referees Ken Wright and Jim Trimbler had an easy time at the Oak Bay-House 1 game, calling only four personals. Bays led 18 to 12 at the half, but Vic High showed to their best in the third, pulling to within one point. However, Bays opened up again in the final frame.

In the game at Mount View, play was rough, and the home squad had an edge in play in the first half, leading 4 to 2 at the quarter and 10 to 5 at the half. However, Esquimalt siege guns opened up in the last half to outscore Mount View,

Richard Takes Over Undisputed Lead In Ice Scoring Race

Elmer Lach fired two goals in Montreal Canadiens' triumph over Toronto last night with Maurice Richard setting up both plays and as a result Maurice zoomed to the top of the N.H.L. scoring parade with 11 points, made up of five goals and six assists, while Lach moved to the second slot with 10 points.

Buddy O'Connor of Rangers picked up an assist against Detroit and now shares third place with Toe Blake, each with nine points. Next comes Syl Apps of Toronto and Jim Conacher of the Red Wings with eight apiece. Jerry Couture and Jim McFadden of Detroit and Bryan Hextall, Rangers, all have seven points.

Vancouver's Crack Junior Grid Squad Hurdles Handicaps

VANCOUVER (CP)—Vancouver Blue Bombers football team, which Saturday will try for its second straight win over Calgary Tornados for the junior western Canada championship semifinal, has really "roughed it" during the current season.

The team is one of the few lacking dressing-room and shower facilities on its home grounds, Douglas Park.

But despite being forced to change studs on the field, crouched behind a slight lean-to, and the discomfort of wearing caked mud, the Bombers have gone ahead to run, pass and kick their way to an undefeated, untied and unscored season in the Vancouver Big Four League.

Guided by their dynamic coach, Ranji Mattu, five times letterman on the mighty University of British Columbia squads from 1939 to 1941, they piled up a convincing record, garnering 187 points in six league starts.

FAST BACKFIELD

The Bomber line is anchored by 185-pound centre Doug Pardington, while Walt Chahley and Vince Cacep pace a fast-moving backfield.

Mattu, 225-pound, 30-year-old Sikh-Canadian, takes time off from running his lumber mill to mentor the Bombers. He is a strict and tough disciplinarian.

Bombers defeated Tornados two weeks ago in the first of a two-game, total-point series, 31 to 0, and are keen for a repeat performance.

"I hope eventually to lead Bombers to a Canadian title—maybe even this year," said Ranji. "Certain Toronto interests are eager to back the trip of a western team—even from as

Bays Open Defence Of Senior Rugby Crown

James Bay senior rugby squad, except for a finishing touch or two, is all ready for the game tomorrow against Victoria College, winners of the season opener last week over Canadian Scottish. Managed by Bert Buller, well-known local rugby enthusiast, Bays have a speedy, light squad chosen for this year's edition, and will be out to protect their rugged supremacy for the third straight year. Game time is 2.45.

In addition to seven left-overs, Buller has lined up players formerly with high school squads, intermediate teams and four who participate in Canadian grid circles here. So far, Buller has failed to come up with a performer for the fullback slot, as an all-out effort to nail Tom McKeachie has met with failure to date. However, latest reports are that Buller is still trying to gain the services of McKeachie, as well as another defender, Bill Van Druen.

For his three-quarter line, Buller has named Fred and Jimmy Ranson, Frank Gower, Pete Langdon, Warren Preedy and Len Jury. Forwards include Bob Blair, Ian Turner, Albie Williams, John Ciceri, Ed Burke, Harry Downs, Dave Crockett, Don Thomas and Ron Dakers. Dick Chugranes is listed for the five-eighths slot, with Gordon Tallor tackling the scrum half position. George Langdon is coaching Bays this year.

Seattle Ice Squad Wins Over Portland

San Francisco crosses the bay to Oakland tonight in an effort to lengthen its lead in the Coast Hockey League's southern division while, in the north, the pace-setting Seattle Ironmen are idle. Seattle thumped the Portland Eagles, 6 to 3, last night for the fourth time—a victory which moved the Ironmen well ahead of second-place Tacoma. Tacoma takes on Vancouver tonight, the only other league contest slated.

Seattle's victory came in a third period rush. The Ironmen

Hot Tempered Hockey

Hamilton-Toronto Pry Off Eastern Gridiron Playoffs

The east's Grey Cupers start playing for keeps today, with Hamilton's Wildcats opening the series of lose-and-you-are-out playoffs leading to the Dominion football final at home against Toronto Indians.

The Wildcats are heavy favorites to win this Ontario Rugby Union sudden-death semifinal and make amends for their untimely exit last season. But the Indians looked at the season's record and still found cause for plenty of confidence as they whipped through a two-hour drill in Toronto last night.

The other O.R.F.U. semifinal will be played in Toronto's Maple Leaf Baseball Stadium Saturday with Ottawa Trojans visiting Toronto Balm Beach, who upset both Wildcats and Indians in winning the league title last season. The semifinal winners meet at Hamilton a week Saturday.

Toronto Argonauts and Ottawa Rough Riders will wind up the Big Four schedule in Ottawa Saturday and start their two-game, total-points playoff Nov. 11 at Ottawa, with the winner meeting the O.R.F.U. titlist Nov. 22 for the eastern crown.

WESTERN SERIES

Winnipeg Blue Bombers already have a 12-point stranglehold on the west's berth in the Dominion final at Toronto Nov. 29. The Bombers, whipped twice by Argonauts in the last two finals, defeated Calgary Stampeders 16 to 4 in the first of a total-points series, with the second game scheduled for Calgary Nov. 11.

Though Calgary was blanketed with a two-day, snowfall, the Stampeders Mewata Stadium playing field was cleared as soon as it fell. The Stamps, with Darrel Wardien back in top shape after missing the opening game, were optimistic about their chances on home grounds.

The Indians pinned most of their hopes for an upset on Bob Paffrath, versatile quarterback from Redwood Falls, Minn.

Injuries Fatal To Veteran Jump Rider

BALTIMORE (AP)—James McGovern, veteran 36-year-old jump rider from Brooklyn, N.Y., died in hospital today of injuries suffered when he fell from his mount in the $3,500 Fairmount steeplechase at Pimlico race track last Friday.

The veteran of 20 years of racing was aboard Kent Miller's Battle Cruiser in the Fairmont. His mount had been skimming along four lengths off the pace, but the second time past the stands in the two-mile event McGovern made a move and Battle Cruiser had just taken the lead when he made a bad landing at the 11th jump and fell.

McGovern apparently was kicked by Battle Cruiser and at least one of the other horses.

MIXED FOURSOMES

A two-ball mixed foursome competition will be staged at the Victoria Golf Club on Armistice Day. Players are requested to arrange their own matches and starting times.

WOMEN'S GOLF WINNERS

In the women's eclectic competition held at the Colwood Golf Club Mrs. Todd-Finney was the winner in the silver division with a score of 71-14-69% and Mrs. Vic Painter in the bronze division with 79-83-70%.

Don Raleigh Signs With N.Y. Rangers

WINNIPEG (CP)—Don Raleigh, brilliant centre with Winnipeg Rods in the City Senior League, today announced he had agreed to sign a contract with New York Rangers of the National Hockey League following a telephone conversation with Ranger coach Frank Boucher.

Raleigh said he would leave today or tomorrow. It will be his second time in the N.H.L. He played for Rangers three years ago, at 17, being one of the youngest players in the league.

Brooklyn Dodgers Sign Negro Youth

WINTHROP, Mass. (AP)—Milton Neal, 19-year-old negro all-round athlete, of Winthrop, has signed with Brooklyn Dodgers and assigned to their Nashua, N.H., New England League farm team.

Neal, an outfielder, will report to the Nashua club for spring training at Greenville, S.C. He attracted the favorable attention of Bill O'Connor, Dodgers' New England district scout, while playing with a Winthrop Twilight League club last season.

Victoria Merchants To Discuss Stoppage Of Utility Strikes

The advisability of joining with Vancouver merchants to ask legislative action to prohibit strikes in public utilities will be investigated by Victoria merchants, P. B. Scurrah, chairman of the retail merchant's section of the Chamber of Commerce, said today.

"The possibilities of such action should be thoroughly explored before any statements are made," he said, "and I would like to consult the other members of my special committee before calling a meeting of the entire section."

Other members of the special committee, to whom he referred, are O. B. Taylor, Hugh Francis and George MacDonald.

"We must find out the full implications of any such legislation before recommending it," he continued. "It may or may not be desirable. However, I do think the public is entitled to continuous operation of public utilities at all times, and services to the entire community should not be disrupted and inconvenienced because of the actions of a small group."

Ald. H. M. Diggon, chairman of the transportation committee, said he was not prepared, at this time, to recommend action which would deny labor the right to strike. "That is their only weapon," he commented. "I would like to throw the problem back to labor, they are the ones that suffer most from strikes, and they are the ones who should guide the legislature in any action which will ensure continuous operation of public utilities."

He said his committee would study the problem further to see if, in co-operation with labor, some plan could not be evolved to provide the solution of disputes in public utilities without cutting off essential services, without taking the rights of labor away.

Esquimalt Lagoon Open To Victoria Holidaymakers Again

Barren of bright beach fires and untrampled by the feet of hundreds of children and would-be children through the war years, one of Victoria's favorite fun-spots, Esquimalt Lagoon, is again open to the public.

Where once crabs were speared and clams dug, sometimes cooked and eaten then and there, and where big bathers frolicked in the surf bursting on Coburg Spit and little bathers paddled through the warmer waters of the lagoon, forbidding signs of the Department of National Defence reigned.

Since peace came, many Victorians have looked forward to returning there. Now they can.

Admiral E. R. Malgouy, Commanding Officer Pacific Coast, has given permission to the public to use the grounds again, with the provision that orderly conduct be observed. However, the general public are prohibited from entering the fenced-in areas around the range building, and boats may not be let for hire in the vicinity during the time the R.C.N.-R.C.A.F. College at Royal Roads is in session.

Called Constable A Liar, Fined $5

One driver in city police court this morning charged with using grossly insulting language against a policeman who had put a ticket on his car for a meter violation, claimed he had not used the swear words the constable said he had, but admitted having called the officer a liar. Fined $5.

Parades Canceled

Evening parades of the 58th and 59th L.A.A. Workshops, R.C.E.M.E., will be canceled Tuesday because of the Remembrance Day holiday, according to Part I orders issued by the commanding officers of the two units.

In an additional notice, members of both units are advised all personnel in possession of clothing and equipment issued for camp must return them on Nov. 18.

Aggregate Honors Of 'Mum Show Go To Five-Times Winner

Leonard Holyoak, 2325 Lee Avenue, was again named grand aggregate winner of a Victoria and District Chrysanthemum Show when judges announced results of the seventh annual show at the Crystal Garden late Thursday afternoon. Victory for Mr. Holyoak marked his fifth consecutive year as champion among Victoria exhibitors of all types of chrysanthemum blooms. The achievement is all the more significant when it is noted Mr. Holyoak only began to specialize in growing 'mums six years ago.

As grand aggregate winner of this year's show, Mr. Holyoak received a silver medal of the National Chrysanthemum Society. He has also been awarded the John Craig Trophy for having the best plant in the show and the Victoria Nurseries Trophy for exhibiting the best plant of decorative blooms.

Best bloom in the show was judged to be one grown by Dave Nichol, who received a National Chrysanthemum Society silver medal and M. O. Mayhew Trophy. The E. M. Whyte Trophy for the best basket of blooms was awarded to M. O. Mayhew.

John Craig received the Fred A. Saunders Trophy for exhibiting the best plant of singles.

Most points in the class B exhibits were gained by A. H. Anderson, who was presented with the M. H. Roffey Trophy. Best bloom in the class B section was judged to be one grown by T. Renfrew, who was awarded the Globe Barbershop Trophy. Best plant in the class B group was one shown by H. A. Nuttall, winner of the Sidney Roofing and Paper Company Trophy.

All flowers entered in the show will be on view to the general public until 9 this evening and from 10 tomorrow morning until 9 tomorrow night.

Hindu Assault Case Heard

Trial of Pergosh Singh and Ronald Elsdar, charged with unlawfully assaulting Kishen Koor, opened in Assize Court before Mr. Justice A. M. Manson today.

In the witness box this morning the 18-year-old East Indian girl identified the accused, Pergosh Singh, as her husband and the one who had forced her, along with Ronald Elsdar, into an automobile on the morning of June 5 last.

She told the court Pergosh first stopped her on Douglas Street and asked her why she was trying to get an annulment. She said she told him that they had discussed that before and the matter was now settled.

Later when she was walking down Market Street with her nephew, she said, the accused got out of a car and grabbed her by the neck, pinned her hands behind her back and pushed her toward the automobile.

"The white man took hold of me," she said "and pushed me into the car."

Mrs. Joyce Eng, 22, Macaulay Point Camp, who yesterday was charged with unlawfully carrying a revolver, appeared in city police again this morning when her defence counsel, W. Berkeley Monteith, asked for a remand to Friday to fix a date for trial.

Offers Gift To Chest; Gets Help

One young navy wife in Victoria will be grateful all her life that a Community Chest canvasser called the other day, in the current campaign to raise $130,000 for welfare agencies.

It was raining and the navy wife kindly invited the canvasser in for a cup of tea, and in the course of the chat that followed offered to donate $2 towards the Community Chest, all the money she had in the house.

However, the canvasser, learning that the young wife was just recently out of hospital, with a $600 bill facing her, not only refused the donation, but got particulars of the case, and now the Community Welfare Council, one of the 19 agencies receiving financial support from the Chest, is taking up her case with a benevolent fund and help in paying the overwhelmingly large hospital bill will be given.

"Even our canvassers act as social workers," D. G. Decker, executive secretary of the Community Chest, commented.

Today the Chest collections passed the 50 per cent mark, with $66,200 having been turned in. Business division has contributed $29,361; residential, $31,864; industrial, $4,321; and rural, $654.

90 French Prefects Called For Talk On Government Policy

PARIS (Reuter) — Premier Paul Ramadier today called all 90 prefects of France for talks here tomorrow on general government policy, including the plan for holding down agricultural prices while raising prices of coal and certain basic industrial products to eliminate government subsidies.

The last full meeting of prefects was held last January under the Leon Blum administration and related to the general 10 per cent price-cutting program.

The French government's "ticket war" against food profiteers began in the Paris markets today when housewives found displayed on all foodstuffs, except meat, a ticket showing the wholesale and maximum retail prices.

This, step was announced in a broadcast Thursday night by Juels Moch, Minister of Economic Affairs, who appealed to housewives to help the government keep food prices down by refusing to buy at more than the maximum retail price shown on each ticket.

Meanwhile, 80 per cent of the public and sanitation services in the Paris area were on strike today, the central strike committee of the Paris Public Service Unions said.

Two thousand workers in the city parks, gardens and playgrounds have also voted to go out on strike and a strike vote was to be held later today among the Paris cemetery caretakers.

The strike wave has been spreading steadily since last Tuesday, when the Paris garbage collectors came out for higher wages. Most of the strikers were demanding the same benefits accorded the subway men after their strike in mid-October. This represents about a 20-per cent wage increase.

During the first nine months of 1947, 4,807,655 automobiles crossed from the United States into Canada, while 1,704,354 cars crossed from Canada to the United States, George I. Warren, commissioner of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau and executive officer of many other tourist promotion groups, told Thursday's meeting of the Victoria Rotary Club in an address which showed the importance of the tourist industry to Canadians.

Mr. Warren said visits made by Canadians and Americans between their two countries represented the greatest flow of travel between any two nations in the world.

To create a more vivid impression on his audiences as to the value of the tourist trade, Mr. Warren pointed out, "by the end of the year, 20,000,000 persons will have visited Canada. These visitors, while in our country, will have consumed 4,000,000 pounds of butter, 4,000,000 dozen eggs, and 18,000,000 pounds of beef."

Continuing, Mr. Warren noted that 30 cents spent by every tourist went to retail merchants, 22 cents went to restaurants and cafes, 17 cents went to hotels and auto camps and 12 cents went to gasoline stations. The remaining 19 cents is spent for transportation, theatre amusements and other incidentals.

There is not one person in Canada who does not benefit from the tourist business, Mr. Warren said.

It was pointed out to the meeting that all nations were becoming aware of the revenue which can result from a tourist industry and that there is now world competition for attracting visitors.

Mr. Warren urged every citizen to take an interest in the Canadian tourist industry to help it along by "simply being kind and courteous to the visitors."

Wilkinson Proposed For Position On Labor Board

George A. Wilkinson, secretary of the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council, has been proposed by Trades and Labor Council unions of the province as a member for the labor relations boards which Labor Minister Gordon S. Wismer is planning to set up shortly.

Other members to the five-man board suggested by the T.L.C. were H. W. Watts of the building council and Robert McCulloch of the milk drivers' union.

Meanwhile the C.C.L. unions of the province, through the B.C. Federation of Labor, have proposed three nominees — Harold Pritchett, district president of the International Woodworkers of America; Harvey Murphy of the International Union Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, and Alex McKenzie, C.C.L. officer.

It is understood the board will be composed of two representatives of labor, two of industry and a chairman. Six names have been proposed by the B.C. branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, but the names have not yet been released.

Five or six temporary lights for the Topaz Heights housing development, to be used until permanent lighting can be installed, were approved by the street lighting committee Thursday.

Ald. E. G. Mulliner, chairman, said today. New street lights were also approved for Clawthorpe Avenue and a corner light at Sumas Street and Washington Avenue.

A charge of supplying an Indian with liquor was withdrawn against James Barnswell in city police court this morning and a new charge of having liquor for sale was read against him. Patrick J. Sinnott appeared as his defence counsel. The case was remanded to tomorrow for plea of election of trial.

"The 200-inch Telescope at Mount Palomar" will be the subject of an address by Miss Jean K. McDonald at a meeting of the Victoria Centre of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, Wednesday night at 8, in the Normal School. Miss McDonald visited the site of the largest telescope in the world last summer.

Cancellation of all woodyard licenses in Victoria will be recommended to Monday's City Council by the public works committee. All wood dealers will be informed they must apply for new permits by Jan. 15. Stringent enforcement of by-laws governing woodyard operation and piling wood on streets also will be asked.

A motorist brought into city police court today wanted to know why the police had taken a detour from "an old custom" that dated back 16 months or more.

He frankly admitted he had parked his car over the one and one-half hour time limit on Courtney Street. "But it was Wednesday afternoon after 1, a half-day holiday, and I have been told by three or four officers that the parking regulations were not enforced following that hour."

Questioned by city prosecutor C. L. Harrison, the accused said he would not reveal the names of the constables who had told him this, "as I wouldn't like to get any of them in trouble."

He got the usual fine of $2.50 imposed against him, because as Magistrate H. C. Hall pointed out, the city by-law says that Wednesday afternoon is no different from any other weekday in regard to parking regulations.

Sign Petition On Cleaning Up Gorge

A petition asking federal authorities to take immediate action to have the Gorge and Portage Inlet cleaned up is in the city clerk's office and has already been signed by Mayor Percy George and a number of aldermen, as well as callers at the City Hall.

The petition sets out how the dirty and polluted condition of the Gorge repels visitors, nearby residents, and boaters, whereas if it were cleaned out it would reclaim a beautiful and sheltered recreation spot which would be developed as a tourist attraction.

B.C. Government Hears Request For School Car Driving Course

The provincial cabinet today heard representations for the setting up of a program to train British Columbia high school students how to drive cars.

The representations were made by a group representing the New Westminster Junior Board of Trade, the B.C. Automobile Association, the New Westminster School Board and Vancouver and New Westminster Traffic Safety Councils.

Delegates reported they had received a good hearing from the cabinet during 45 minutes of discussion.

Two proposals were placed before the government. The first was to make available an official, perhaps of the B.C. Police, to supervise a traffic instruction course to start next January among Grade 11 students in New Westminster high schools.

The second was to expand this program into a province-wide scheme in all city and municipal high schools to train at least 4,000 of the estimated 5,000 Grade 11 students per year.

It is estimated, using costs figures from the United States, that the program would cost about $32 per student per year. The overall program would therefore cost about $125,000 per year, but delegates admitted these estimates may be high because of the difference in cost in Canada and the United States.

The delegates reported that in the U.S. General Motors Corporation had made available 1,000 dual control automobiles for training purposes in schools and some similar arrangement was thought possible could be worked out here.

New Westminster is planning to launch the course regardless of possible government action as an extra-curricular activity for Grade 11 students.

The delegates, accompanied by B. I. "Boss" Johnson, M.L.A. for New Westminster, were Frank Young, president of the New Westminster Junior Board of Trade; Roy Hay, chairman of the traffic safety council; Edgar Chapple, secretary of the New Westminster School Board, and R. S. Arnot, director of the B.C. Automobile Club.

Delegates reported they had the 100 per cent co-operation of the school board, the New Westminster police and the city council.

If the program is established B.C. will be the first Canadian province with an auto driving course in its high schools. Delegates said 1,000 high schools in the U.S. taught automobile driving, and in Delaware the course had been underway for 17 years.

All phases of driving along with the mechanics of automobiles are planned to be taught in the course which would include 36 hours of classroom instruction of six to 10 actual driving classes with dual control machines. Ultimately it is the plan of the New Westminster group to have high school teachers provide the courses after special training.

A building permit has been issued to Parfitt Construction Co. to erect a small office building at 1321 Gladstone Avenue costing $2,500.

If a child's diet lacks certain food elements serious things can happen. Stunted growth, soft bones, poor teeth! Easily nerves, loss of appetite, defective eyesight!

Ovaltine supplements the diet with food elements frequently deficient in ordinary foods. Three glasses of Ovaltine made with milk provide a child's daily requirement of Vitamins A, B<sub>1</sub>, C, D, Riboflavin (B<sub>2</sub>) and Niacin and Minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.

But Ovaltine is more than just a vitamin and mineral carrier. It also provides basic food substances—complete proteins to build muscle, nerve and body cells—high-energy foods for vitality and endurance. It thus acts as an insurance against food deficiencies that retard normal growth.

So if your child can't gain weight, is thin, and nervous, or eats poorly, why not turn to delicious Ovaltine?

Three years ago, I had a very severe attack of Sciatica in my left leg, writes Mrs. T. A. Beacon, 467 Vitr St. W. Montreal. "The leg and hip were sore for 2 or 3 weeks. Then I was suddenly stricken with a pain as sharp as a knife driving through the flesh of my leg. The cords seemed to shorten up, so that I couldn't keep my leg straight, but could reach the floor only with the toes of my left foot. My leg was so stiff and sore, I could hardly get about. When a friend recommended Templeton's T-R-C's, I was eager to try them. It was fortunate I did, for T-R-C's brought me quick relief from pain and stiffness.

Paffrath Named Most Valuable In Ontario Grid Loop

TORONTO (CP)—American-Import Bob Paffrath of Toronto Indians has been named as the "most valuable player to his club" in the Ontario Rugby Football Union, proving Indians were smart when they didn't look a gift horse in the mouth.

That Paffrath was a "gift" to Indians is hardly a secret. The big backfielder, formerly of University of Minnesota, turned out first with Hamilton Wildcats of the O.R.F.U. but the Cats had to refuse him because they already had their quota of five American imports signed up. They suggested Indians might like to have his services.

Paffrath's choice as winner of the Imperial Oil Trophy as the O.R.F.U.'s top players marks the second year in a row the honor has fallen to an American. Playing-coach Frank Gnu of Wildcats, the man who recommended Paffrath to Indians, took down the award in 1946.

Paffrath's choice as the 1947 winner was announced by Harold Bailey, O.R.F.U. secretary.

Although Paffrath finished the regular schedule fairly far down the scoring list, this was mainly because his forward passing ability accounted for much of his worth to the club. A good passer, kicker, runner and plunger, Paffrath scored three touchdowns and a convert for 16 points in eight games. Joe Farley of Ottawa Trojans, the loop's top scorer, rolled up 38 points in 10 games.

Babe Zaharias Plays In U.S. Men's Open

NEW YORK (AP)—Babe Didrikson Zaharias, who turned pro this year after winning everything in the women's amateur golf field, said Thursday she planned to enter the men's United States open tournament next year.

"I don't expect to win," she added, "but I think I can qualify."

She has a 72-hole medal play mark of 292, and has turned in rounds as low as 67.

Butler Still Hopes To Buy Spokane Club

SPOKANE (AP)—J. Lamar Butler, Los Angeles attorney, telegraphed the Chronicle that he will be in Spokane Friday to continue his fight to gain possession of Spokane Indians baseball club of the Western International League.

League directors at a recent meeting turned thumbs down on the sale of the club by owner Sam Collins. Butler, who with Buddy Ryan, Sacramento baseball man, was to have purchased the club, said he would also attend a meeting of the league directors in Seattle Sunday.

Elks Trounce Sooke

Playing at Sooke last night, Elks basketballers of the V. and D. intermediate B boys' loop, came home with a 40 to 26 decision over the home squad in an exhibition tilt.

Winners were the better squad all the way, taking a 12 to 5 lead by the end of the first quarter, and going ahead 24 to 9 by the halfway mark. Norm Sanders led Elks with 18 points, while P. Hanson topped losers with 13.

Yearling Trotter Sold For Record $42,000

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Sale of White Hanover, a yearling trotter, brought $42,000, the highest price ever paid for standard-bred horse at public auction. S. A. Camp, Shafter, Calif., potato grower, was the successful bidder for the horse placed on the block by the Hanover Shoe Farms, Hanover, Pa., at the ninth annual standard-bred horse auction.

The previous high paid for a standard-bred yearling was $37,000 when Victory Song was knocked down to Castleton Farm, Lexington, Ky., three years ago.

BERMUDA ENTERS GAMES

LONDON (AP)—The Olympic organizing committee reported today Bermuda has accepted an invitation to participate in the 1948 games, bringing the total number of competing countries to 52, two more than the record set in 1936.

Canada Planning Wedding Stamp

OTTAWA (CP)—The Post Office Department is making plans for a special stamp to commemorate the wedding of Princess Elizabeth, Walter J. Turnbull, deputy postmaster-general, said Thursday.

Details of the design have yet to be worked out, and it will not be possible to issue it on the wedding date, Nov. 20.

It is expected the stamp will bear a likeness of the princess, and that its color will be royal purple. Face value has not been announced.

Robbery In Winnipeg

WINNIPEG (CP)—A lone robber who kept his hand in his pocket as though fingering a revolver, Thursday night held up the Portage Fruit House at Portage Avenue and Carlton Street, in downtown Winnipeg, and escaped with $446.

Canada Places Second

NEW YORK (AP)—Canada placed second in the stratosphere trophy event in the international jumping competition at the National Horse Show Thursday night when a United States horse named Swizzlestick ended the triumphant march of the Mexican army.

World Fliers Plan Lap Tomorrow

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—The round-the-world fliers, George Truman and Cliff Evans, today decided to take off Saturday on the final laps of their world flight back to the United States in their tiny 100-horsepower planes.

In the event of bad weather, they will fly the Alaska Highway route south to Edmonton rather than their previously planned flight route to Annette Island, southeastern Alaska, and then to Los Angeles. They left Teterboro, N.J., on their world flight last Aug. 9.

Espionage Plot For Movie To Be Made In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "The Iron Curtain," 20th-Fox film of Russian espionage in Canada, is slated to start Dec. 8 in Ottawa and the studio will try to rush it to the screen while the topic is still hot. Dana Andrews would like to be in the picture, but it starts the day after he finishes "Deep Water."

BING AND BARRY
 Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald who twice have rung the box office bell with screen appearances together, will try it again. In their next, to be made in 1948, Barry will portray an Irish merchant and the crooner will be an American insurance investigator sent to Eire.

LINDA AS LYDIA?
 Linda Darnell as "Lydia Bailey?" The Dallas gal may portray the Kenneth Roberts heroine after "Walls of Jericho." If the novel can be filmed without too great cost, Execs at 20th-Fox want to make it at half the cost of "Amber," which ran about $6,000,000. Locations would be in Haiti and Linda is eager to go. She's yearning for work after her six-month vacation.

NEW CONTRACT
 Paulette Goddard starts a new seven-year, no-option contract with Paramount this week. She can do one outside film a year.

Bette Davis and William Grant Sherry are shopping for a ranch near Taos, N.M. Alarmist note: Christmas trappings are already going up on Hollywood Boulevard. "It Had To Be You" is one of the brightest comedies of the year, although Ginger Rogers lays it on a bit too thick.

CAPITOL THEATRE
 Red Skelton drags out an old book at his house to prove one of the most unusual stories in his experience.
 Browsing in a Hollywood book store, he noticed an old copy of "Merton of the Movies" on the shelf. Since this is his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, the comedian purchased the volume.
 When he got it home, he opened to the fly leaf—and there were the autographs of Glenn Hunter and Florence Nash, stars of the silent version of the comedy, which was made in 1924!
 "Gave me a kind of jumpy feeling," says Red.
 The star appears with Virginia O'Brien, Gloria Grahame, Leon Ames, Alan Mowbray, Charles D. Brown and Hugo Haas in the new laugh riot, now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

ATLAS THEATRE
 Maureen O'Hara, John Payne, Edmund Gwenn and Natalie Wood are the principal characters of Twentieth Century-Fox's hilarious and heart-warming new hit, "Miracle on 34th Street," at the Atlas Theatre. Written for the screen and directed by George Seaton, the film boasts a cast of other outstanding players, including Gene Lockhart, Porter Hall, William Frawley, Jerome Cowan and Philip Tongue.

Carrier X Story Packed With Action

Revealing the thrilling saga of the strangest course a ship ever sailed... the strangest venture fighting men ever dared, "Wing and a Prayer—the story of Carrier X," opens today at the Rio Theatre.

The first great drama of carrier forces ever filmed, the 20th Century-Fox picture stars Don Ameche, Dana Andrews and William Eythe. Also featured in the cast of the thrill-packed picture are Charles Bickford, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Kevin O'Shea and Richard Jaeckel.

Jane Darwell In 'Meanie' Role

Jane Darwell is playing her first "meanie" role in several years, and she figures it will save her money.

The character actress is weary of playing sweet, self-sacrificing mother roles, and when she was offered the role of the superintendant of an orphanage in Columbia's "Keeper of the Bees," now playing at the Dominion Theatre, she accepted with alacrity.

"I was so nasty in this film that I almost scared myself," chuckles Miss Darwell.

OAK BAY THEATRE
 Positively the first theatrical performance ever given by Orson Welles in front of an audience was a highly individual version of the "laugh, clown, laugh" routine from "Pagliacci." He did it at a ship's concert while crossing the Atlantic to Europe with his parents. He was then eight years old. And it is doubtful if anything like it ever was seen before or since. Welles, now 30, is currently in the International picture, "Tomorrow Is Forever," at the Oak Bay Theatre.

YORK THEATRE
 The Irving Berlin-Bing Crosby-Fred Astaire combination that teamed up a few years back to turn out the highly successful "Holiday Inn," have joined their superlative forces again to present a cavalcade of Berlin hits that dwarfs in spectacle their initial effort. The new film is Paramount's "Blue Skies," now at the York Theatre with Crosby and Astaire sharing star billing with Joan Caulfield, and Billy De Wolfe and Olga San Juan in the featured roles.

PLAZA THEATRE
 Victor Moore as a youth was a sickly youngster, and not expected to live long. Now, in his 72nd year, he is a busy actor. He is co-starred with Don DeFore, Ann Harding, Charlie Ruggles and Gale Storm in Roy Del Ruth's "It Happened on 5th Avenue." Allied Artists comedy. It is being shown at the Plaza Theatre.

Soviet Employees' Address Brings Warning From Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—The government warned the Russian Embassy Thursday night it would demand the immediate recall of any diplomatic official making offensive speeches such as that of I. O. Scherbatuk, Soviet employee here, at St. Vital, Man., last July 27.

In a note delivered to the Russian charge d'affaires, the External Affairs Department declared Scherbatuk's speech at a Ukrainian picnic, as reported in a Ukrainian newspaper, was clearly offensive and "calculated to promote ill-will and hostility" between different groups in Canada.

The Ukrainian-language newspaper Ukrainske Slovo had quoted Scherbatuk as criticizing Canadian Ukrainians who welcomed displaced persons from Europe.

The department's note declared it had asked the Russian Embassy two months ago for a text of the speech, but had not received it. Also, it was not aware of any denial of the accuracy of Ukrainske Slovo's report.

The Canadian note, delivered to M. V. Degtiar, Russian charge d'affaires, quoted Scherbatuk in his St. Vital speech as follows:

"But there are to be found among the Ukrainians of Canada those who gladly unfold their bosoms to these traitors and bewail their hard fate. They share the hatred of the traitors towards their homeland because they themselves have already turned black from fierce hatred for the Ukraine and her heroic people, who, in fraternity with all the other peoples of the Soviet Union, have created real conditions for an abundant development of the Ukraine, which has been recognized by all the nations of the world as an independent and sovereign state. They believe in all the lies of the displaced persons because they themselves have long ago lost all sense of truth and honor."

Plan Better Meals

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Restaurant Association is going to try to send U.S. tourists home with a "good taste in their mouths." Earl Nichols of London, Ont., national president of the C.R.A., said the association aims at holding on to the tourist trade by raising standards in Canadian restaurants.

STEVENAGE, Hertfordshire—Building has begun on a £200,000 ($800,000) secondary school which experts say will be the finest in Britain. Its construction is part of Stevenage's development as a "satellite" town.

Halifax Row Over Musicians' Union

HALIFAX (CP) — For the second time this year, the American Federation of Musicians (A.F.M.) is the cause of a rumour in Halifax.

The Halifax local of the union Thursday night prevented four of its members from playing with the Civic Youth Band at the re-opening of the Halifax Forum.

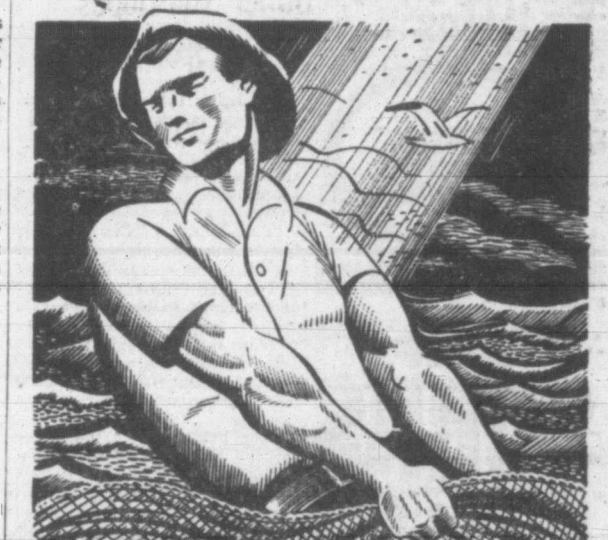

Shortly before the band was scheduled to appear the four players informed director Roy K. Smith they had been requested by President Don Lowe of the Halifax local not to play. If they did they would be penalized by the union, Mr. Smith was told.

It was Mr. Smith's second brush with the union. Last winter the union blocked efforts of teen-agers to play over a local radio station. The teen-agers, who refused to employ union musicians for the show or union members as stand-ins, finally used recordings for their musical numbers. Mr. Smith acted as chief spokesman for the teen-agers at the time.

 SINCE THE DAYS OF SIR JOHN A. MacDONALD
 In 1881, five years before the last spike in the transcontinental line of the C.P.R. was driven, the House of Todd commenced fishing operations in Victoria which have continued unbroken to the present day.
 For 60 years, Todd's brought to Canada the pick of Pacific coast seafoods... then, in 1941, the entire pack was diverted to overseas theatres of war, breaking a link with Canadian consumers reaching back to Sir John A. MacDonald.
 We are pleased to announce that Todd's salmon is again available in Canada. This heralds the return of "Horseshoe" Sockeye Salmon... packed to the same pre-war standards which made it the very symbol of salmon perfection in Canada.
 When you buy seafoods, look for the Todd label... none but the choicest bear it.

Nanaimo Land-Sea Terminal To Cost $1,750,000

An artist's sketch of the Canadian Pacific Railway's new land-sea terminal at Nanaimo as it will look when the big job is completed.

Work has begun on the Canadian Pacific Railway's new $1,750,000 land-sea terminal at Nanaimo which will provide a major link between Vancouver Island and the mainland. Designed for rapid transfer of passengers and freight, it will be the most modern of its type.

Dredging has already commenced on the site in Nanaimo harbor. Known as Cameron Island, the site was purchased from Canadian Colliers (D) Ltd. The work of clearing and leveling ing preparatory to construction has also started.

Ships of the C.P.R.'s B.C. Coast Service, running between Vancouver and Nanaimo, will dock at two piers and there will be direct handling of passengers, automobile and freight. Passengers from the ships will have dockside transfer to automobiles serving Victoria to the south and other island points to the north, and to trains of the E. & N. Railway.

The terminal plan includes large wharfage, a modern passenger station, waiting rooms and ticket offices, freight shed and garages and a wide parking area for automobiles.

Access to the terminal will be by means of a four-lane, 1,800-foot driveway, connecting with Commercial Street into Nanaimo and with Island Highway No. 1. There will also be a six-foot sidewalk in connection with the driveway.

The project will completely replace present docking facilities at Nanaimo, and has been carefully planned by C.P.R. engineers to eliminate congestion of automobile and bus traffic.

The concentration of three services—ship, rail and bus—at one point is a unique departure in terminal construction.

The small float shown in the sketch on the inner side of the pier will be used by the New-castle Island Ferry.

High Costs Causing Building Slump Says Victoria Contractor

Building in Victoria has dropped off practically one-third of what it was last year and the building industry has experienced a major slump due to high construction costs, V. L. Leigh, past president of the Victoria Builders' Exchange, told directors of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting Thursday afternoon.

"I have just made a survey of the period from July 1 to Oct. 15 and I find the number of building permits issued in the city during this period has fallen off 33 per cent for the same period last year," Mr. Leigh stated.

"Not only that, but three out of every four of these permits were taken out by week-end builders."

Mr. Leigh explained the term "week-end builders" was a nickname given by contractors to persons, outside the building trade, who built houses in their spare time—"doing most of the work during week-ends."

"I don't blame fellows for trying to beat the high costs—I would try the same thing myself if I wanted a home. But some of them are building houses to sell as soon as they are completed and it is not fair. It is not fair because a considerable amount of the work is not good—in some cases it is decidedly poor."

"The industry gets the blame for the workmanship," he complained.

Referring to present high building costs, Mr. Leigh said, "I do not believe materials or wages will come down as long as Europe. In the situation it is in now, continues to buy our materials."

Mr. Leigh said a meeting of Victoria contractors will be held next Monday night to decide whether or not the 15-cent an hour increase being asked by carpenters should be granted.

"The minute an increase is made to the carpenters, everybody in the trade will be out to get an increase, too," Mr. Leigh said.

"If the increase does go through, I don't think there will be many houses built in Victoria next year—maybe just a few by week-end builders."

400% Increase In Salmon Run Through Hells Gate

The 34th annual convention and golf tournament of the Association of Pacific Fisheries wound up here Thursday following election of officers and reports of International Pacific Fisheries Commission.

A. L. Hagar of Vancouver, chairman of the International Pacific Fisheries Commission, reported to the convention that there had been a 400 per cent increase, by a conservative estimate, in the number of sockeye passing through Hells Gate on the Fraser River this year over 1943 when only 100,000 fish migrated to the spawning grounds in the upper reaches of the river.

Hells Gate has been the scene of extensive construction of fish ladders to make it easier for the fish to reach their spawning grounds.

He said that the increase of spawning was a definite result of the fishing regulations of the commission and the clearing of blockades.

"During 1947 there was no hold-up or delay at either Hells Gate or in the Peace River," he said. "The fisheries worked perfectly at all stages of water. The obstruction removal program is on the way to completion and we are most enthusiastic about the accomplishments."

Pacific fishermen now were producing three-fourths of the world's supply of halibut, Edward W. Allen of Seattle, member of the salmon commission and the International Pacific Fisheries Commission, said.

Mr. Allen attributed the present healthy state of this fishery to the control and development program of the commission, organized in 1932 by Canada and the U.S.

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

A. W. Wittig of Seattle was re-elected president of the association for a third term. Other officers are: G. V. Graham, Seattle, first vice-president; J. A. Green, Bellingham, second vice-president; G. B. Peterson, Seattle, third vice-president; E. W. Thompson, Astoria, Ore., fourth vice-president; Dr. E. D. Clark, Seattle, secretary-treasurer.

A. K. Tichenor, San Francisco; A. W. Shiels, Bellingham; G. P. Halferty, Seattle; J. T. Tennessee, Seattle; L. T. Kreiselheimer, Seattle, and Mr. Wittig were re-elected for three-year terms to the board of trustees.

Level Crossing Crash Claims 3rd Victim

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Arsene Ouellette, 22, died in a hospital late Thursday, third victim of a collision between a motor car and a Canadian Pacific Railway passenger train at a level crossing near here Tuesday.

Killed at the time of the crash were Albert Garant, hitchhiker and father of two children, and Edward Riley, father of eight.

Chimney Fire In Saanich Linked With Stabbing Case

A police court charge arising out of an ordinary chimney fire was linked with the stomach stabbing wound suffered Oct. 27 by Dorothy Smith at 755 Roderick Street, Saanich, and a subsequent charge of causing her grievous bodily harm being laid against Noel Smith, in Saanich police court Thursday afternoon.

Capt. Glen Robbins of the Saanich fire department, who led the fire-fighting crew to that address in answer to an alarm, found the wounded Mrs. Smith lying on a bed in the house and sent out the SOS for an ambulance, an action which is believed to have saved her from a more serious condition through loss of blood. She collapsed on arrival at hospital.

The charge laid against Dominic Pallantier, owner of the house, for allowing a chimney to get into such a condition as to be a fire cause, was dismissed by Magistrate H. C. Hall as evidence showed he did not occupy the premises. Persons who occupy premises and allow a chimney to get into such a state are responsible, according to the Saanich fire by-law.

Capt. Robbins said he saw Pallantier on arrival in answer to the alarm. The defendant told him he knew of no fire on the property. There were two houses on the lot, one at the front and another behind it.

Capt. Robbins informed the court he told Mr. Pallantier that as a result of the alarm, he was responsible to make a survey to make sure whether there was a fire in his portion of the house, which resulted in the charge being dismissed against Pallantier, who lived in the structure at the rear of the property.

The case against Smith was remanded. Prosecutor C. L. Harrison said it would probably be two weeks or more before Mrs. Smith could attend the court.

Marriage Fair Run By Jap Magazine

TOKYO (AP)—Three hundred Japanese—women hunting husbands and men seeking wives—paraded on a bank of the Tama River looking each other over in a marriage fair sponsored by a marriage magazine, the newspaper Asahi reported today.

Dressed in their best, they came from all parts of Honshu and Kyushu Islands. "A considerable number" found mates, the Asahi said, but others just walked up and down the river bank.

Some of the women, the paper noted, "were accompanied by their mothers, which probably didn't help."

The procedure:
1. Register at the entrance to the grounds.
2. Get a number.
3. Place number on chest.
4. Walk up and down the bank, ogling each passerby.
5. Spot a likely prospect, take down the number, run to the registration tent and get a card file giving the prospect's life history (bank balance included!).
6. Propose, if desired. This is done through a magazine representative—who gets a commission.

Says Russia Safe From Any Enemy

LONDON (AP)—Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, Russian Defence Minister, said Thursday in an order of the day that "the Soviet people in two years of the five-year plan have built a country which can stand against any enemy."

The order, issued in Moscow on the eve of the 30th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution and broadcast by the Moscow radio, attacked "the instigators of a new war," declaring "the warmongers should remember the disgraceful end of the German Fascists who dug the grave for other capitalistic countries."

Bulganin directed that 30 artillery salutes should be fired today in Moscow and other Russian cities in honor of the day.

Baby Clinic Robbed

Macaulay Point veterans' home camp baby clinic will be closed until repairs have been made and equipment replaced as a result of destructive work by vandals who broke into the premises, Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson, health officer, reports.

The vandals smashed interior furnishings, stole nurses' uniforms, blankets and sheets. A partition was knocked down. The camp comes under the jurisdiction of Esquimalt police.

British Budget Day Next Wednesday

LONDON (Reuter) — Next Wednesday will be budget day for Britain, when the country will learn from the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Hugh Dalton, what further anti-inflation financial burdens it will have to bear to speed economic recovery, Herbert Morrison, Lord President of the Council, announced Thursday.

The budget is expected to mean an increase in the tobacco duty, purchase tax and profits tax, as well as possible changes in the system of food subsidies.

Murder Verdict In Winnipeg Slaying

WINNIPEG (CP) — Mrs. Elsie Tasker, pretty 42-year-old divorcee who "didn't look her age," was stabbed to death in her Young Street home Oct. 4 or 5 by a person or persons unknown, a coroner's jury decided Thursday night after hearing 16 witnesses.

She had been stabbed eight times, a pocket of her slacks turned inside out, the contents of a purse strewn over a kitchen table, a desk drawer opened and the downstairs part of the house generally in disorder. Her automobile later was found parked across from police headquarters.

Police said they were holding a man, but while they had not yet released him, they now believed he had no connection with the murder.

VEL works magic!

CUTS DISHWASHING TIME
3 WAYS

VEL penetrates, cuts grease, loosens dirt faster.

VEL eliminates wiping... dishes, glasses gleam... no streaky film to wipe away.

No dishpan ring with VEL... no soap scum to scour away.

VEL washes my woollens,
so-o-o soft and fleecy!

Says Jean Small of Etobicoke, Ont.

"My woolen sweater still fits like a dream, after five washings with VEL... it feels soft as velvet, too. VEL is marvelous for woollens. No soap scum, so colours stay bright. No shrinkage because VEL washes perfectly in lukewarm water."

JUST put a few teaspoonfuls of VEL in your dishpan (about half as much as soap). Add water. VEL gives the water amazing new cleaning power that lasts long after suds dissolve. VEL removes grease faster, more completely than soap—in hardest water. Your dishes, glasses sparkle like jewels, without the touch of a towel. And VEL is milder to hands, free from soapy alkalis!

VEL keeps stockings
sheerer, lovelier!

Says Claire Honeyford,
Toronto

"My nylons stay lovelier longer now I wash them with gentle VEL. I put just a teaspoonful of VEL in the basin, add lukewarm water... dip and squeeze a few times, and VEL washes nylons and undies fresh and sheer as new. Colours stay bright, too... no dulling soap film."

Makes hard water act soft...

Gives water amazing cleaning power...

Cleans long after suds dissolve...

Better even in cool water...

Milder to hands...

ECONOMICAL
VEL goes further than soap.
Try using half as much.
